SYNDICATE HOLDS TERMINAL STOCK Commission Begins Its Hearing

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—The operating value of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways or Key Route system, exclusive of real estate holdings, was estimated today by the company's general manager, W. H. McLimont, at $38,738,200. Against this valuation there is outstanding indebtedness in bonds, loans and capitalization amounting to $22,121,200, according to the books of S. W. Frost, assistant secretary and treasurer.

The figures were brought out in the course of a hearing held by the State Railroad Commission on an application of the company to issue $10,000,000 in new bonds for refunding present liabilities and for the purchase of a new equipment and other betterments. A committee of the road's creditors is opposing the application.

Secretary Frost divided the indebtedness as follows: Loans, $3,690,000; bonds, $16,616,000; preferred stock, class A, $3,811,200; class B, $1,000,000; common stocks, $13,710,000.

OWNED BY SYNDICATE

With George Moore the Detroit financier, on hand to tell of the millions procured for the refinancing of the company and with intervenors and objectors disposed of for the time being at least in short order, the Railroad Commission proceeded this morning with the hearing of the corporation's application.

The fact was disclosed this morning and came as a surprise to the commission, its bond experts, and others present, that the majority stock of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways, was at present held, not by the Oakland Railways, the holding company, as supposed, but by the Equity Syndicate. Commissioner Eshleman wanted to know about this and it was explained that there was no secret regarding the transfer, which had been made something over five months ago.

It was a representative gathering which was present in the meeting room of the commission when President Eshleman took his chair at 10 a. m.

COUNSEL FOR ALL

The San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways company was represented by Attorney W. H. Smith Jr., of this city, and George W. Mordecai, of Oakland. Attorneys William R. Brobeck and Gavin McNab appeared for the directors of the railroad and as representatives of the Smith-Teviston interests. Attorney E. J. McCutcheon represented one faction of the intervenors and Attorney Henry J. Rogers of Oakland, another.

The application was for permission to issue $10,000,000 first refunding mortgage, five per cent gold bonds. The purpose of the money thus raised is to pay off the $10,000,000 loan of $2,500,000, the so-called tide-land loan of $1,100,000, to settle other outstanding obligations and to provide money for the betterment of the system and the purchase of equipment for the heavy haul of 1915.

At the outset Commissioner Eshleman disposed of the friendly intervention of Attorney Rogers on the part of certain bondholders.

DEFINES JURISDICTION.

"This commission has no jurisdiction over the United Properties Company, which is not a public utility corporation," said the commissioner. "We have no blue sky law in this state, and even if it should appear that the holding company has constructed a fraud on your plant, this commission cannot reach it. The United Properties Company is in the same position as a stockholder."

Attorney McNab explained that

Rogers' position was not a tenable one to his way of thinking, concluding by saying:

"This is a measure to conserve, not to destroy the assets of the company." Attorney E. J. McCutcheon appeared in behalf of Clifton E. Warden, W. S. Ream, and other stockholders of the East Shore and Suburban Railway Company, which is one of the lines absorbed by the San Francisco-Oakland and Terminal Railway. He protested that the United Properties had purchased the stock of the Richmond line, agreeing to give the shareholders bonds secured by a first mortgage on the property.

OTHER OBJECTIONS.

"The stockholders of the East Shore and Suburban Railroads have never received the consideration promised," he asserted, "and recently we gave notice of a rescission. It is our contention that it is not permissible for a street railway to consolidate with a regular railroad, as was done in this instance."

Commissioner Eshleman held that the matter was one for the courts to determine and that the only bearing on the matter before the commission which the deal would have, would be as far as the East Shore and Suburban line was concerned.

Attorney George W. Lane, representing other certificate holders, could not be present, and Attorney Elliott appeared for him and announced that he would file an application in intervention later.

MANAGER ON STAND.

With these matters disposed of, A. W. Limont, general manager of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railway, was sworn as a witness and questioned by Attorney Smith. As to his qualifications as a railroad expert he related his experiences in the management and operation of street railroads since 1899, during which he has at various times had charge of street railway systems in Greater New York, Chicago, Detroit, and other cities.

He explained that the San Francisco and Oakland Terminal Railways, owned 255 miles of track, 450 pieces of rolling stock, including passenger cars, work cars, sprinklers, five trolley poles, wood, concrete, and iron trolley poles, copper wire, and other appurtenances. Excluding all real estate and franchise values, as well as the valuation of rights of way, he declared that the present reproduction value of the actual physical plant of the company would be $21,000,000. This would average $72,000 per mile for each of the 255 1/2 miles of track.

MUST CHANGE CONTRACT.

While McLimont was on the stand, he explained that some of the money realized by the bond issue contemplated extensive improvements extending to 1917. Just here Commissioner Eshleman called attention to a contract for supplying power entered into by the railroad with the United Light and Power Company, which he said was controlled by the same director.

"This contract, I believe, to be too favorable to the power company," he said. "Such a contract should not remain in existence. One is a public utility corporation and the other is not. Something should be done about this matter if you are in good faith and want to do it."

"We do want to do it," replied Attorney Smith and the directors are now considering a change in this regard."

Attorney McCutcheon asked a question regarding the holding of stock in the railroad.

BOND ISSUE OF MILLION SOUGHT

Berkeley City Council to Pass Ordinance for Election

Funds Needed for More Schools, Harbor and Civic Center

BERKELEY, June 3.—A bond issue totaling over $1,000,000 and making provision for a new school, waterfront improvements and the establishment of a big square by the city hall as a civic center, will be shortly proposed to the voters of this city. A conference of city officials concerned was held this noon. If possible the ordinance calling the election will be voted by the city council tomorrow morning. It will include the following provisions:

For five new schools in different parts of the city, $500,000.
For a civic center in the block bounded by Center street, Alston way, Milvia street and Grove street, $125,000.
For the improvement of the waterfront, dredging and the building of wharves, $500,000.

In connection with the last item of the list will be a provision that none of the bonds shall be sold until a guarantee shall have been given by the United States government that it will expend a similar amount along parallel lines. It is believed that with a half million dollars, plans for school purposes, the present congestion in the schools the worst in the city's history may be largely mitigated, although the school board recently asked for this purpose sum of the amount of $1,300,000. The school board has practically decided where it will place the new buildings. One will be to relieve the overcrowding of the high school. The other four will be the four corners of the city where the present school buildings are inadequate. The property proposed to be acquired for a civic center is already surrounded either by public buildings or by sites of proposed structures. At one end is the city hall property; along one side the Berkeley high school, and at another end the Y. M. C. A. and the proposed federal building site, where work has already commenced.

Tentative plans for the improvement of this property are already in the hands of the city. Government assistance for the improvement of the West Berkeley waterfront is confidently expected by the council if the proposed half million of bonds is voted locally. Members of the California delegation at Washington have already expressed their intention of assisting Berkeley in her maritime developments.

Last Tributes Paid To Barnard's Memory

The funeral of the late W. C. Barnard, former trustee of the First Congregational church of this city and prominent civic welfare worker, was held this afternoon in the church of which he had been an officer. A large crowd of former business associates, co-workers in civic and welfare work, and friends paid their last tribute to the memory of the deceased. Rev. Albert W. Palmer, pastor of the Plymouth Congregational church, read the service and delivered the eulogy.

Numerous floral gifts surrounded the casket. Dozens of bouquets of choice flowers, wreaths and large stands, told of the esteem and affection of his friends here, where he made his home for many years.

Up to noon today, no details of the death of William C. Barnard had been received. His body was brought to Oakland, last Saturday by Leslie Burke of Berkeley and Everett Barnard, son of the deceased.

The pallbearers were C. Z. Merritt, president of the board of trustees of the First Congregational church; Thomas E. Hayes, Frank Boswick, Fred Wheeler, R. A. Leet and Dr. G. C. Smith.

Interment was in Mountain View Cemetery.

Harvester Trust Must Pay Fine of $25,000

WASHINGTON, June 3.—The Supreme Court today affirmed the decision of the lower court in the case of the Harvester Trust, which was fined $25,000 for violation of anti-trust law. The court held the law was not violated.

Campaign for Offices Feature of Grand Parlor Meet.

North and south arrived together today in Oakland for the great Native Daughters' Grand Parlor Session, which officially convenes in Oakland tomorrow. The first two delegates to register at the Hotel Oakland for the convention were Mrs. Belle Thompson of Redding and Mrs. Grace S. Stearns of Los Angeles. Throughout today the delegates arrived, the reception committee and accommodations committee of the local Native Daughters and Native Sons parlors receiving them. This afternoon was a busy day at the committee desks, while delegates were given instructions and badges and assigned to the different hotels of the city. Tonight the delegates will receive their welcome at the hands of the parlors of the county, when Native Sons and Daughters will pass before them in a great parade. This to be followed by the public reception at the Chamber of Commerce.

The present convention, the twenty-eighth in the history of the order, will be one of the most important in the history of the organization. Besides the nomination of new officers, to take place Thursday, according to present plans, the election, choosing of the next Grand Parlor city and the setting of special interests are coming before the members.

ISAACS IN COURT

Bellevue Auditor, Accused of Embezzlement, Is Given Continuance.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—Morris P. Isaacs of 5711 Oak Grove avenue, Oakland, former auditor for the Bellevue Investment Company, which operates the fashionable Hotel Bellevue, appeared before Police Judge Sullivan today to answer to a charge of felony embezzlement.

In default of bail Isaacs has remained in the city prison since he was taken into custody early Saturday evening. He was represented today by Attorney Isadore Golden, and was granted a continuance until Wednesday.

Isaacs is accused of having taken approximately $10,000 of the money of the hotel. He charged with the responsibility of checking the work of the cashier. He was suspended in April and has since been under the surveillance of private detectives employed by his bonding company, while experts were going over his books and specific counts set forth in the complaint against him is the misappropriation of $100.

R. R. MEN SEE CITY

Gould System Representatives, in Oakland, Extended a Cordial Welcome.

"If there is anything that the Gould railway lines can do for Oakland, let us know and we will put our shoulders to the wheel at any time. Your reception of our officials has been a royal one, and Oakland will always have a warm glow of remembrance in our hearts."

He spoke J. M. Johnson, vice-president of the Pacific and the Western Pacific, and head of the "Gould Railway Family," in acknowledging the welcome extended to two hundred passenger and traffic officials and their wives at a luncheon this afternoon in the Hotel Oakland, tendered by the Oakland Commercial Club.

For the first time, a great transcontinental railway system has sent to the Pacific coast on a special train its official family of representatives from all parts of the United States. They have seen with their own eyes the incomparable advantages of Oakland as a center of industrialism and culture, and they will bear to all corners of the land the information which will bring thousands of tourists and homeseekers to this city.

The visitors arrived in Oakland this morning at ten o'clock and were greeted at the Key Route Inn by a reception committee from the Commercial Club. Automobiles were in waiting, and the guests were whisked away for a tour of the city, a drive over the Highland boulevard and a visit to the campus of the University of California.

MEN AND WOMEN FOR AUDITORIUM BONDS

The Engineers' Union, Local No. 507, and the Ladies' Auxiliary of the same local at their respective meetings last Thursday evening went on record in favor of completing the municipal auditorium without further delay.

A committee headed by President W. B. Joseph was appointed to make an active and energetic campaign for the success of the bond election next Friday. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, we firmly believe, as do all progressive and wide awake citizens of this city, that to allow the auditorium to remain in its present uncompleted state would be equivalent to a confession to the world that Oakland has surrendered its claim to be a great and modern city; and

Whereas, looking at it from a business standpoint, it is an undeniably fact that this grand building when completed will directly or indirectly benefit all the people of Oakland regardless of trade, profession or calling; and

Whereas, in our judgment, if all who have the welfare of the city at heart will go to the polls and vote next Friday June 12th, the bond issue necessary for the completion of this building will carry by an overwhelming majority. Therefore, be it

Resolved, that Local Union No. 507 of the International Union of Steam and Engine Engineers, do hereby commit the proposed bond issue and urge upon all our members and friends the absolute necessity of doing all in their power, to the end that said bonds will carry.

W. B. JOSEPH, President.
J. C. LINDGREN, Secretary.

Resolved, that we, the Ladies of the Auxiliary of the Engineers' Union, Local No. 507, do hereby commit the said bond issue and urge upon all our members and friends the absolute necessity of doing all in their power, to the end that said bonds will carry.

MRS. A. L. JOHNSON, President.
MRS. J. C. LINDGREN, Secretary.

INSTITUTION TO TRAIN TEACHER

Model Plant to Be Estab- lished, Is the De- cision

Educators' Conference Results in Victory for This City

Word was received by Oakland school authorities this afternoon to the effect that it had been practically decided that the State High School, provision for which was made by a resolution of the State Board of Education recently passed, be established in this city. The matter was left largely in the hands of the regents of the University of California. It was understood that the school, a training institution for teachers, should be established where available lands should be found, and still maintaining as nearly central a location as possible. The latter clause, led the chief efforts to be made in bay communities, and a very hard fight for the school was put up by San Francisco.

The Oakland school authorities, however, went their rivals one better, it is understood, by offering a building, a site, a corps of teachers and other necessary equipment. A committee appointed by the Board of Regents met at the University of California today and decided in favor of the Oakland offer.

It is understood that the cost of maintaining the school will be furnished by the State, and that a small balance will accrue annually to the local school department.

TO ARRANGE DETAILS.

"There is still so much detail to be arranged about the matter," declared Richard G. Boone, acting director of the school of education of the University of California, this afternoon, "that we are not yet ready to make a really definite announcement about the matter. The Oakland Board of Education, I understand, meets after this afternoon or this evening to consider the whole plan. Thereafter it will be referred to the University regents for final decision."

According to Professor Boone the State High School will be operated as a model institution. Oakland will turn over to the educational department of the University of California either one of the present buildings or a new building to be constructed. Here the teaching will be done in the grade of high school work, by students in pedagogy of the university. There are about 150 students enrolled in this department annually, who are competent to give high school work in such an institution. They will be under the direction and supervision of the educational department in Berkeley. Interested in the plan are the members of that department, among whom are Professor Alexis F. Lange, Professor Richard G. Boone, Professor L. W. Howarth, Professor W. S. Thomas, Professor C. E. Rugh, and others.

According to Calvin M. Orr, acting chairman of the Board of Education, it is planned to utilize the Emerson School for the purpose, unless another school is destroyed.

"I know little about it," declared Orr. "We were told that the students would teach. It appears a very good thing for the school department."

Only a few cities in the United States enjoy the distinction of possessing model high schools. Of these the best known is the school in New York City for which Columbia University is sponsor.

Local educators declare that the possession of a model high school will mean that Oakland's reputation as an educational center will be second to no city west of Chicago.

Supervisor D. J. Murphy has been made chairman of the general committee, and the plans are already far enough advanced to be given to the public. Superintendent Murphy and his fellow committeemen have plenty of good material to draw upon in the Livermore valley, in Contra Costa county and in the Mount Diablo country and in the Mount Hamilton country and on Mount Diablo to make the best kind of an exhibition and none of the better kind.

REV. A. W. PALMER TO MAKE REPLY TO 'CHIEF OF POLICE'

Rev. A. W. Palmer Says That There Are Good and Bad Points in Play.

Speaking on the subject, "Can You Make a Sunday School Out of a Seaport Town?" Rev. A. W. Palmer delivered a sermon at Plymouth church yesterday morning which was an answer to "The New Chief of Police," which has been playing the past week at a vaudeville theater. He said in part:

"The New Chief of Police" is a curious mixture of true and false social philosophy. An Irishman would say it contained many serious questions. Let me analyze it for you.

"First of all, it contains some wholesome truths. The rebuke administered to the extreme and immodest clothing worn on the street by many women, and the denunciation of women who paint their faces, smoke, drink and play cards for amusement, are both very much to the point.

"In the second place, 'The New Chief of Police' contains some subtle falsehoods. Let me enumerate them. The first one is the assumption that by closing the segregated district, vice is scattered all over the city. As a matter of fact, segregation doesn't segregate and is rapidly being abandoned, even in Europe; see Dr. Flexner's new book on prostitution in Europe. Vice is scattered all over the city even where you have a segregated district. In the second place, the play argues that a sailor home from a long voyage needs a red light district for his amusement. This means plainly the double standard of morality; that provision must be made for men to go things they would not tolerate in women. Now, the time has gone by when such a plea for a double standard of morality can pass unchallenged.

BETTER RECREATION.

"The better spirit of today says: Let the sailor and every other man find his recreation in theaters and amusement parks, in swimming baths, gymnasium and baseball games, but not in degrading somebody's sister. The play is also distinctly untrue in assuming that so-called 'high society' women, who drink and gamble and paint their faces, are at the same time the reformers who want the red light districts closed. The typical women interested in reform in Oakland do not drink, gamble or dress immodestly. To my mind the three most worthy women reformers of this city are a noble woman physician, a practical business woman and an efficient social worker who daily faces the tragedy of modern social wreckage.

"The play is also untrue in assuming to say that since they have the ballot women are meddling with questions they know nothing about. The point is, that women do know a lot about these questions; they often pay for their knowledge on the operating table. A woman's point of view about the red light district is quite possibly as true and worthy of a respectful consideration as a man's. Now, however, as to a human being and fully entitled to speak and vote and 'meddle' with all human questions. Possibly she may prove to know some of the things men have ignored and made a mess of by their ignorance.

"In the third place, 'The New Chief of Police' omits some things vital to the subject of which it treats. For example, the play assumes that a red light district provides a safety valve. It omits the real fact that such a red light district becomes a nest of criminals and a generator of the basest practices, that it stimulates more than it satisfies and creates more demand than it supplies. Another fatal omission lies in the assumption that immodest dressing is the only cause of women being insulted in the street. Behind this cause lie other and mightier ones—the suggestive theatrical show, the false stimulation of liquor and the perversion of the human mind unrelieved by the exciting force of love and of religion.

WHAT THEY PROPOSE.

"The chief says, sarcastically, 'You are trying to make a Sunday school out of a seaport town.' In all seriousness, that is what we propose to do. Only the chief has never been inside a really up-to-date Sunday school. Our Sunday school here at Plymouth Center, for instance, contains not only equipment for Bible study, but also for wholesome recreation—a gymnasium and shower baths, pool tables, bowling alley, boxing gloves, a stage, kitchen, and even the much despised 'reading room.' The modern Sunday school stands for all that builds character and all recreation that does not poison or destroy men and women. But for amusement purchased at the cost of the degradation of another human being there is no room anywhere, neither in a Sunday school nor in a seaport town."

BANKS SELECTING RESERVE ELECTORS

Will Choose Class A and B Directors for Federal Reserve Institutions.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Banks throughout the United States are designating electors to represent them in the selection of Class A and Class B directors for the federal reserve banks soon to be established.

It is believed by the Treasury Department that all the directors of the two classes will have been selected by the end of three weeks and certainly within a month. The duty of selecting Class C directors for the banks will then devolve upon the federal reserve board, which is only partly organized. Two vacancies on the proposed board still remain. President Wilson and Secretary McAdoo have had several recent conferences concerning these appointments and the names of the two additional members will probably be announced and the entire list submitted to the Senate this week.

Charles F. Hamlin, assistant secretary of the Treasury, was very generally believed to be the choice of the administration for Governor of the Board. E. C. Simmons of St. Louis is much discussed as the probable representative of the Middle West on the Board, but Chicago is insistent on being represented and there is reason to believe that President Wilson is giving careful consideration to the qualifications of several Chicago business men.

The salary of members of the Federal Reserve Board is to be $12,000 a year in addition to traveling expenses.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR LATE ELIJAH H. DOWNER

Elijah Hedding Downer, who was at one time associated with Fair and Mackay in mining enterprises and a fellow stage driver with Hank Monk, was buried this afternoon in Mountain View Cemetery. He died last Thursday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. H. Ellis of 480 Thirty-seventh street.

Erie county, Pennsylvania, was his birthplace. He was 86 years of age.

Crossing the plains in 1850, Downer engaged in mining enterprises and returned by way of Panama, surviving a shipwreck.

In 1850 he married Miss Ellen Powell, and with her he again crossed the plains. On the Placerville-Dutch Flat stage line he was a well known driver. Later taking up horse racing, he was a familiar figure at tracks in Nevada and California. Thirty years ago he moved to Oakland, and lived there to the time of his death, with frequent trips to race meets. He was well known as the State fair meets for years.

Downer is survived by two daughters, Mrs. H. C. Ellis, Mrs. William Panfili of Woodland and a son, Ezra.

Mrs. Burke at Los Angeles today declared she had been threatened with death by the woman to whom she sent the poisoned sweets.

LOS ANGELES, June 8.—Apparent relief by the fact that the band, James Burke, a railroad man, had engaged an attorney to defend her Mrs. George Simmons Durka, who confessed Saturday in Richmond, that she had mailed poisoned candy from Winslow, Arizona, to the wife and daughters of William Dagg at San Diego, left the city jail here today under guard to go to the latter city for trial.

Mrs. Burke expressed joy today that her attempt to kill the feminine members of the Dagg family had failed.

HOPES FOR LENIENCY

"I trust also," she said, "that they will not be too hard on me."

The depressing effect of such literature as "Camille" was blamed by Mrs. Burke for her deed.

In a statement today, amplifying the confession she made at Richmond, the woman declared she had been threatened with death by Mrs. Dagg. That was some time ago, but last month after a protracted period of reading books of the "Camille" sort, she said she felt an overwhelming desire to send the poison to the Dagg family and one night at midnight, without waiting to throw anything over her night-robe, she took the package to the postoffice.

Next morning she repented her act, and coming to this city, engaged a detective to get the package back.

Railway Officials on Visit Guests of Commercial Club

J. M. JOHNSON, VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE DENVER AND RIO GRANDE RAILROAD, WHO WAS A VISITOR IN OAKLAND TODAY WITH "THE GOULD FAMILY" OF RAILROAD OFFICIALS.

Convenes in New Department Room

Court was convened in the new Department No. 2 courtroom formerly occupied by the city council this morning for the first time. By a new arrangement, the case which was formerly provided for prisoners awaiting trial has been dispensed with, a room being decided off the court room for this purpose. The prisoners are brought in one at a time instead of being kept under inspection by the inquisitive lobby crowds during the entire procedure.

The first felony case heard before Judge Samuels in the new court room was that of John Dooley, arrested in Berkeley last month on a burglary charge. Dooley was held over for trial before the Superior court on $500 bonds for entering the home of Margaret Pray, where he is alleged to have stolen silverware and a revolver, which he later pawned in local stores. Dooley has a previous record.

Department No. 1 has been relegated for some weeks to the civil service reference room on the ground floor of the City Hall. The court room was completed today, however. Judge R. B. Tappan of Alameda county is today presiding.

On account of the fact that there was no space for a room, the prisoners' cage has been retained in Judge Smith's court.

master and introduced Mayor Frank K. Mott, who greeted the visitors on behalf of the city. The city is honored with the presence of this distinguished company," declared the Mayor, "and I am pleased to greet you and offer our hospitality. We have always had a high regard for one branch of our great system—the Western Pacific. We were glad indeed when we heard that this road was to reach our city, and it was a joyous occasion when the first train entered our gates over that line."

"We do not forget the great service which this road has done for Oakland, because we remember that it is to the Western Pacific that we owe the adjustment of a controversy to our waterfront that had existed for fifty-five years."

O. E. Hotte welcomed the guests on behalf of the Commercial Club and the response was made by Vice-President J. M. Johnson.

"It was possible to find adequate words of appreciation for the welcome which you have given us and for the natural advantages of Oakland which we have seen this day. The welcome is the most hospitable that we have met since we left home," he said. "The people of Oakland have placed us under another obligation, and the list is already a long one."

"These men whom you are greeting today are the speaking tubes of our railroad system, they are the ones who talk for us in every city of the land. We brought them to California that they might know something about this great state and we brought them to Oakland that they might talk about this city of magnificent future.

"The tour of the city which you gave us this morning has been a revelation to the members of our party. They will be traveling agents for Oakland from now on, and they will say that Oakland is the gateway to the Panama-Pacific exposition. I want all our family to know that a direct ferry service is to be run from Oakland to the fair grounds, and I want them to tell all the people how to get there. Now they have seen and they know that the best way to reach the exposition is to come to Oakland and take the ferry from this city."

In acceptance of an invitation issued to them at their recent conference in Salt Lake City by the Grand President Joseph E. Caine of the Oakland Commercial Club and District Freight and Passenger Agent Walter B. Townsend, one hundred and fifty officials of the passenger and freight departments of the Gould railroad system arrived in this city this morning at ten o'clock and were greeted at the Key Route Inn by a delegation from the Commercial Club. When welcomed had been extended, the guests were escorted to automobiles and were taken on a tour of the city and environs. Many of the officials were accompanied by their wives and the entire party, including the wives, were taken to the Key Route Inn.

Starting from the Key Route Inn at 10:15 o'clock the cortege of automobiles wound through the business section of the city, past Oakland to the foothill boulevard and the southern limits of the municipality. Returning northward, the route followed Highland Drive along the rolling foothills past Lake Merritt and on to the slopes of North Berkeley. The drive terminated at noon at the Hotel Oakland, where the visitors were entertained by a luncheon by the Commercial Club. Following this the railroad men made an inspection of the Western Pacific properties in Oakland and departed for Los Angeles at four o'clock.

J. M. Johnson, vice-president of the Denver & Rio Grande, is the ranking official of the "Gould Railway Family," which includes freight and passenger agents and ticket agents of the Western Pacific, Denver & Rio Grande, Missouri Pacific, St. Louis, Iron Mountain and Southern railroads. Prominent in the party are F. A. Wadleigh and C. L. Stone, passenger traffic managers; W. D. Hoyt, general Eastern passenger agent; Ellis Farnsworth, general agent, passenger department of Chicago; J. A. Seltenkamp, general agent of Cincinnati; T. F. Godfrey, general agent of Omaha; C. K. Bothwell, Wichita; W. W. Richmond, Little Rock; Elmer Smith, Memphis; E. R. Jennings, Chattanooga; A. B. Ayers, Butte, and others.

the state will see a closely contested campaign by many candidates aspiring to office. Among a few offices for which there is no contest expected is that of grand vice-president, which, according to present indications, will go to Mrs. Margaret Grote Hill of San Francisco. Many candidates are in the field for other offices.

According to the committee reports, to be read during the early sessions, the order has shown an increase of over 1000 new members, and the installation of three new parlor, La Junta, No. 203, at St. Helena, Bay Side No. 204, in West Oakland, and El Monte, No. 205, at Mountain View. The sum of $1000 is now on hand for the Pioneer Mother's Monument, one of the projects to be considered at the next, planned to be erected at San Francisco, was originated by Mrs. Ella Sterling Nichols of Hayward Parlor. The report of the committee on Homeless Children will also be read at the opening sessions, and the election will close the sessions.

By virtue of her office as grand president, Mrs. Allison F. Watt, on retiring, will automatically succeed to the office of junior past grand president. The grand vice-president, May succeeded to the office of president, and Alice H. Dougherty and Susie K. Christ, grand secretary and grand treasurer respectively, are also conceded reelection. Mrs. Mary E. Carmichael of Vendome Parlor, No. 100, San Jose, is so far the only candidate for the office of grand marshal. Others will enter the field however, it is declared, before the election takes place.

CONTESTED OFFICES

The contested offices so far have the following nominees in line: Grand Outside Sentinel—Dora Bloom (Sans Souci 96, incumbent), San Francisco; Carrie Hall (Berkeley 150), Berkeley; Anna L. Lange (Argonaut 166), Oakland.

Grand Organist—A. A. Trabucco (Marquette 5, incumbent), Mariposa; Julia Laikin (Alei 102), Salinas; Mrs. Mae Edwards (Keith 137), San Francisco.

Grand Trustees (seven to be elected)—Emma Boardman Wright (Ursula 1, incumbent), Jackson; Mrs. Grace L. Wiley (Joachim 5, incumbent), Stockton; Miss Mary L. Woods (California 22), Sacramento; May L. Williamson (Grand Marshal, Santa Cruz 26), Santa Cruz; L. V. Holmes (Occident 28, incumbent), Eureka; Mrs. Mary Bell (Grand Inside Sentinel, Buena Vista 3, San Francisco); Belle Smythe Gribi (Veritas 75, incumbent), Merced; Addie Mosher (Piedmont 87, incumbent), Oakland; Miss Elizabeth Tietjen (Darina 114), San Francisco; Miss Grace Stoermer (Los Angeles 44), Los Angeles; Amy Wick (Storing 146, incumbent), Pittsburg; Claire S. Clark (Presidio 148), San Francisco.

NOTABLES ARRIVE

A large number of notable Native Daughters arrived as delegates today, including many Past Grand Presidents, who will pay visits to the session. The Past Grand Secretary, Mrs. Lillie Humphrey, now of Reno, Nevada, made a special trip to the session. Mrs. Mary E. Caine, secretary of the Native Sons and Daughters Homeless Children agency, was also an early arrival. Others who arrived on the scene early were Mrs. M. Sanchez of San Miguel, Miss Celia Duran of Jamestown, Mrs. Grace Bristol, Jamestown; Mrs. A. G. Purcell, a pioneer early today in her apartment at a hotel here and died. She had lived here for 10 years. The rest of her estate was left to her daughter-in-law, Hilda Purcell of River Forest, Ill.

Charles A. Purcell, the husband, is a principal in a suit now before the Supreme Court in California which attacks his right to the personal use of the half million dollar estate of Mrs. D. Purcell, who left him her property as residuary legatee.

The wording of the will suggested the condition that she intended that Purcell should distribute the property among several charities which are parties to the action.

Mrs. Purcell left also a note in which she said that she was impelled to seek death by fear of the disease which had carried off her father. A Presbyterian clergyman, named Gray, who is said to have been prominent in Chicago

Tomorrow night will see the grand ball at the Hotel Oakland, when Mrs. T. F. (Alice) Purcell will be the mistress of ceremonies. The grand march will be led by Mrs. J. M. Johnson, vice-president of the Native Sons, and Mrs. J. M. Johnson, vice-president of the Native Sons, and Mrs. J. M. Johnson, vice-president of the Native Sons.

An informal dance is also being planned for Scottish Rites Cathedral, upon the arrival of the delegates. The guests yesterday at a special program rendered for them by the Lakeside Park Band at Lakeside Park. California airs were played under the direction of D. C. Rosebrook, conductor of the band.

The parade this evening will begin at 7:30 o'clock, forming at Thirteenth and Clay streets and traversing Fourteenth, Washington, Seventh, Broadway, San Pablo avenue, Sixteenth, Broadway, Twelfth, Allice, Thirteenth, Harrison, and then disbanding in the van of the parade will be Grand Marshal Joseph Clavo and H. G. Williams, marshal of the day. Among others who will be prominent are Allison F. Watt, former grand president, Addie Mosher, grand president, L. H. Mosher, grand president, and many others.

At 9 o'clock there will be a public reception in the auditorium of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, where a program will be given. Among those prominent in the reception and the later events of the convention will be Mrs. Allison Watt, grand president, and the Oakland 1914 grand parlor committee, consisting of Chairman Addie Mosher, Vice-Chairman Sarah Sanborn, Secretary Anna Lange, Treasurer Irene McNeice, Mrs. Jennie Jordan, chairman of the finance committee; Mary E. Wright, Sarah G. Sanborn, Harriet Willard, Ada Spelman, Tillie Frick, Cora I. Clough, Lillian Murden, Annie Ellison and Eleanor McCarthy.

WEEK'S AFFAIRS.

The grand parlor assemblies at Scottish Rite Cathedral at 8:30 tomorrow morning, and there will be an afternoon session at 2:30. In the evening will be held the annual and ball, formal, in the ivory ballroom of the Hotel Oakland. Wednesday, after morning and afternoon sessions, there will be a theater party at the Orpheum. Thursday afternoon, the delegates will be taken to the top of the city hall, and in the evening there will be a session on and exemplification of the ritual.

The convalescence Saturday with a visit to the exposition grounds.

THURSDAY—
Women's Democratic Club Hotel Oakland 2 p. m. (Rev. William Keeney Townner, Speaker).

The last guns in the big auditorium campaign, in which the Auditorium Campaign Committee of the Commercial Club, the Progress and Prosperity Committee of the Chamber of Commerce and other organizations enlisted in the fight to complete the big building that is to house Oakland's conventions, will be fired this week at a series of final meetings between the business men, political organizations and workmen will all hear the call to arms of the commercial organizations and boosters of Oakland. Prominent speakers will be heard at the big membership meeting of the Commercial Club final campaign plan details will be outlined.

Rev. William Keeney Townner was the speaker this afternoon before the regular meeting of the Federated Mothers' Clubs, which was given over to the auditorium matter as a special order of business. Dr. Townner pictured the benefits to accrue from the completion of the big building. He told of the conventions to come to Oakland and urged upon the women of the city the paramount duty of rallying to the polls that the bonds may not fail through lack of votes or apathy on the part of the citizens entrusted with the duty of carrying the ballot.

Tomorrow night's smoker will see matters of campaign detail discussed. The affair will be informal, no set series of speeches being planned. J. H. King, chairman of the Auditorium Campaign Committee, will be in charge of the discussion, and will report on work accomplished and on the final matters for consideration. Several other prominent workers will also be heard.

TO ADDRESS UNION.

The union men will, as a special order of business, hear several speakers to be furnished by the committee to outline the bond situation. The membership meeting of the Commercial Club is in the nature of a get-together rally.

James P. Montgomery, until recently a strong opponent of the bonds, has decided in their favor, and yesterday made his first speech urging their adoption. Following his inspection of the foundation tests, made by Professor Charles Durlath of the State University, he issued the following letter, explaining his change in attitude to President Harmon Bell of the Commercial Club.

"I regret the shortness of the time between the present moment and the bond election, presents a great obstacle in bringing to the people the truth of the statement herein made to you. However, I would suggest that you use every endeavor to promulgate the fact that the rumors as to the insecurity of the foundations of this great auditorium are unfounded. As we have commended the erection of this great building at a time when the eyes of the world are turned towards this particular portion of the Pacific coast, I feel it would be a monumental folly on the part of our people to leave uncompleted a building to which the conventions of the world have been invited on the occasion of the Panama-Pacific Exposition in 1915."

To leave unfinished this building would be a confession of our unwisdom, our selfishness and our folly. Such a confession made to the world would prove of irreparable injury to our city.

"With this belief and with the firm conviction that the building is resting upon an absolutely safe foundation, I feel it is the duty of everyone who is a part of this city to bring forth the requisite vote to enable the municipality to complete this great building."

"Yours truly,"
(Signed) "JAMES P. MONTGOMERY"

Suicide, She Leaves Husband One Dollar

LOS ANGELES, June 8.—Leaving a will bequeathing $1 of her wealth to her husband, Charles A. Purcell, a broker in Chicago, Mrs. A. G. # Leaders to Gather at Belmont and Commemorate Support Efforts.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—In an effort to concentrate support for a sufficient measure in Congress, suffrage leaders yesterday issued a call for a meeting of all leaders in the movement in the United States to meet at Mrs. O. H. Belmont's Newport home, Marble House, on July 2.

Two bills, one by Senator Shafroth and the other by Senator Brister, are now before Congress. The suffrage leaders are divided as to which measure to back, but they hope to settle all difficulties at the Newport meeting. Suffrage workers from nearly all states, and representatives of both the Congressional Union and the National American Woman Suffrage Association will participate.

Miss Doris Stevens, executive secretary of the Congressional Union, will leave and open up headquarters there for the purpose of conducting an educational campaign throughout the summer. Miss Mary Doyle Brennan will undertake a similar work at Atlantic City. Workers also will be sent to practically all the other large summer resorts, hundreds of college girls having been enlisted in the movement to hold meetings on woman suffrage wherever recreation crowds assemble.

SUPERVISORS CONSIDER MATTOX ROAD WIDENING

Petition of Castro Valley Club Up Before Board

A petition of the Castro Valley Improvement club and various property owners of the district for the widening and macadamizing of the Mattox or Castro valley road from East Fourteenth street to the Dublin boulevard and a portion of the Lake Chabot road northward from Castro valley brought about a slight difference of opinion between Supervisor W. R. Bridge and A. Whelan of Castro valley this morning at the regular meeting of the Board of Supervisors. Whelan made the statement that the county has not expended any money on the road for some time and that portions of it are in a dangerous condition.

"That road is in an excellent condition," declared Bridge, "and I believe that it is one of the best in the state today. The county has expended hundreds of dollars on it and I am surprised that such a statement should be made."

In the discussion which followed it developed that the two men were referring to different sections of the road, and Bridge agreed that one stretch was in need of repair. The petitioners are ready to sell liquor at the Willows Hotel in that town. On the motion of Supervisor Bridge, no action was taken, as the ordinance recently passed by the board provides for the issuance of new licenses in the county, the number of saloons now existing is to be reduced as the licenses expire.

ROAD IMPROVEMENTS ORDERED.

County Surveyor P. A. Hayward reported that the Francisco-Crocker company had completed the construction of an oil macadam pavement on Willow street. He also recommended the payment of $331.10 to the company for the payment of $494.60 to T. E. Russell for road improvements on the Crow Canyon road in the Castro Valley road district.

The sum of $760 was transferred from the general road fund to the Livermore district and $150 to the Palomares district.

MUST TEST GROUND.

Lack of uniformity in the nature of the ground at the county infirmary was reported to the board by Architect Chas. Peter Weska, who stated that it will be necessary for the county surveyor to locate each building of the new infirmary group on its site. Test holes rock is not uniform and that different levels will be required for the foundations of the various structures. It will not be necessary to do this exact locating of the foundations until just before bids are taken for the buildings.

ASSESSMENT CANCELLED.

Erroneous assessments on five parcels of land on Bancroft way and Barron street belonging to the regents of the University of California were cancelled by the board on the recommendation of Deputy County Assessor Thomas Robinson. The latter question was assessed at $100 each on several parcels of property owned prior to the opening of the property to the university.

The deeds were delivered to the regents during the months of January and February, 1913, and were not recorded until May 16, 1913. As the land is now State property, it is not assessable by the county.

BIDS FOR COUNTY SUPPLIES.

The county clerk was directed to advertise for bids for supplies for the coming year for the county infirmary, the several departments of the county court house, the hall of records, jail, receiving hospital and the station house. Bids must be filed with the clerk of the board on or before June 22, at 10 o'clock a. m.

ADVERTISE COUNTY.

A resolution authorizing the expenditure of $1600 in the advertising of Alameda county as a summer resort in the newspapers of the interior of the State was adopted by the board. The advertising will be handled by the publicity firm of Hunt & Schmidt.

INFIRMARY CHANGES.

On the recommendation of Superintendent C. A. Wells of the county infirmary the following changes at the institution were ratified by the board:

1. The dining room to be replaced by a new dining room to replace J. E. Costup and T. Griffith, driver, to replace W. E. Wilson.

NEW YORK, June 8.—Old Father Knickerbocker is coming to realize that all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy—and the same may be said for Jill and Jack and Jill's parents and grandparents and uncles and aunts and cousins. That is the city of New York and the merchant princes, bankers and railway magnates of the city have come to know that their employees must have recreation.

Accordingly some of the largest department stores in New York have agreed to close their shops Saturdays as well as Sundays during the hottest part of the summer. Also they will not open until nine on other days and will close at five.

Such an arrangement will give the shop girls a seven-hour day and two entire days of rest each week. With a five-day

WHY ELIGIBLE MAIDS AND MEN STAY SINGLE

(By BETTY MARTIN.)

Why so many splendid, prosperous men and attractive, well-bred young women remain single is a question which is beginning to harry our servants.

The situation was canvassed at the recent National Conference on Race Betterment, and various remedies for this state of affairs suggested.

"Eligible young people," declared one who borelled present matrimonial conditions, "should have their circle of acquaintances broadened.

Cards, dancing, theaters and similar means of social entertainment were all enumerated as tending to give the range of acquaintance and also "give the necessary time for mutual estimates and friendships."

All of which looks hopeful, since it is through little things we come to know each other, and propinquity is love's ally. Indeed, the business girl or professional woman stands a far better matrimonial chance than does the woman who remains at home. She has almost unlimited chance of meeting men and she labors under no delusion concerning them.

fears and aspirations are concerned, men differ very little, if at all, from women. They want pretty much the same things, as a whole, especially when it comes to domestic life. Above all else, the dream of domestic health, always, pictures happiness and a mate bravely facing life's ups and downs.

BUSINESS PROMOTES MARRIAGE.

In business circles where men and women are associated, manners will out. In the individual characteristics are certain to crop up, and men and women know each other for what they are. Business circles, prosaic though they be, are in reality promoters of marriage rather than the opposite.

It is quite true, too, that the longer marriage is postponed the less likely is such a contract to be entered into. Postponement is usually made for self-advancement of some sort or other. Maybe, mental, more likely material. The man may want to accumulate more money for his bride-to-be; the woman may desire to complete her studies along higher lines—but postponement is dangerous. It incalculates fear—fear to face the future which younger folks brave with happy hearts. Mistaken notions of duty, too, often leads to single life.

An early love affair, like the measles, is practically the universal fate. If favored by circumstance and matrimony results, well and good. The chances are the bark will sail the seas without sinking, but delay brings caution. A caution and a claim induced largely through the modern trend of extravagance and high cost of living as well as changed social conditions.

Too many people, with marriageable sons and daughters who ought to encourage social amenities in the home, buy their diversions, and do nothing to cement ties between friends. Mothers of today are frequently so much engaged in social "uplift" and public "welfare" work that they forget members of their own household.

RESTAURANT TO VS. HOME.

If a dinner is to be given, instead of gathering the young people about the family dining table, seats are engaged at some fashionable hotel or restaurant where gaudily dressed singers parade up and down between crowded aisles, bawling popular songs in strident voices above the uproar of vacant laughter and the clatter of knives and forks. "It is cheaper," the mother of the family is wont to declare. It saves time and worry. Besides, if anything goes wrong I am not to blame and people nowadays are so difficult!"

Yes, madam, but what of your own son and your own daughter? Does the public restaurant, with its promiscuous crowd of diners, supply the place of home? Does the theater, after dinner is over, offer the same opportunity for social intercourse, for the founding of friendships, for the beginnings of life-long companionship, that your own living-room does?

MISS BERNICE DEVLIN

ALAMEDA, June 5.—Two of Alameda's fairest daughters, members of the young society set, have gone into the east and Europe, and have seen and have conquered. They are the Misses Charlotte and Bernice D'Evelyn, daughters of Dr. and Mrs. F. W. D'Evelyn. Both are graduates of the Alameda High school.

Although their abilities are diversified, they are without peers in the east or Europe.

Miss Charlotte D'Evelyn, who is also a graduate of Mills College, made special researches into the source of the Arthurian romance found in Chester's "Love's Martyr" and gave an analysis of a rare thirteenth century manuscript and special investigation of a recently discovered manuscript of Bede's Hymn and secured for a second time a senior scholarship in English at Bryn Mawr College.

Not alone in the halls of learning was Miss D'Evelyn prominent. She was an active contestant in the field day held at the college and won the second of the high jump. Brain and brawn both brought honors in Miss Charlotte's conquest of the east.

Following the winning of the dancing honors in New York, where she studied music, Miss Bernice D'Evelyn went to France with her mother, and last week at the Lamer club dance, Champs Elysees, Paris, beat the French dancers at their own game and took first honors. There were fourteen competitors in the French dances. Miss D'Evelyn won the first prize, and was given an ovation. Mrs. Ralph Thomas, formerly Mrs. Frank Gould of New York, won second honors.

WANT BRIDGE REPAIRS

Complaints relative to the condition of the roadway on the Webster street bridge over the Oakland estuary were made to the board by C. H. Haslett, president of the Truckee Lumber company, and H. D. Cantwell, manager. The complainants declare that the plankings have worn so badly that it is now an "autumnalists' nightmare," and suggests that an asphaltum roadway be constructed. The matter was referred to the committee for investigation and report.

BOARD WILL VISIT GILROY.

An invitation was received from Mayor George A. Wentz of Gilroy, requesting the members of the Board of Supervisors to attend the Gilroy "Pageant of Progress" to be held on June 10, 1914. The invitation was accepted by the board, and the visit to Gilroy will be made for the purpose of inspecting the new road, which is being constructed on a concrete base and an asphalt covering.

SALOON LICENSES GRANTED.

Saloon licenses were granted today to Andrew J. Wynn, of the city of San Francisco, and Manuel T. Asencio of Warm Springs. An application was filed by Peter J. Williams of San Lorenzo for a permit to

PROFIT IN SATURDAYS.

For several years Saturday afternoon has been in a half-holiday in downtown New York. Well street and the financial district, the banks, railroads, offices and such establishments have closed at noon Saturday and their employees have had plenty of rest. It is the opinion of some that here, as in England, Saturday will in time come to be a general holiday, with everything except amusement enterprises and necessary establishments such as drug-stores, and the like will close two days in each week.

It may or may not be true that employers of labor are becoming more humane and thinking more for the happiness of their employees, but it is a fact that they realize that recreation is absolutely necessary. It is not their motives are calculating, but what of that, so long as the working people get the benefit, it is a certainty that the best workers are the happy and contented workers, the healthy and strong workers. A man and a woman may be compelled to work long hours six days a week but that man or woman, while he or she puts in more time, will actually do less work in the long run than the man or woman who has shorter hours and porous recreation. The first workers are so tired and discontented that their efficiency is lowered, while the latter through their rest hours, have so much to interest them and take their minds from the factory or store that they come back full of enthusiasm and accomplish greater results.

There is now a movement on foot among the churches of New York to establish playgrounds at every house of worship for the children of the neighborhood. That the children and the grown-ups in the congested greater city must have rest and air and fun if they are to be useful citizens is coming to be realized more and more, to the general benefit of all New Yorkers.

GREAT PHILANTHROPISTS.

Jacob Riss, who died the other day at his country home in Massachusetts, was one of the greatest philanthropists who ever lived in New York and he seemed to have an insight into human nature and conditions that was almost uncanny. While thousands were mourning for Jacob Riss, the National Child Labor Committee was working to carry out a reform that Riss inaugurated twelve years ago. At that time in his book, "The Children of the Poor," Riss wrote:

"There is still another employment that absorbs many of the boys and ought to be abolished with the most haste possible. I refer to the messenger service, that of the district telegraph office. Anyone can see for himself how badly are some of these boys who carry messages about the streets every day, but everyone cannot see the kind of houses they have to go to, the kind of people they meet and the influence that beset them hourly at an age when they are the most easily impressed for good or bad. If that were possible the line would be drawn against their employment rather at eighteen than at sixteen or fourteen."

In the dozen years since Riss voiced his sentiment, thirteen states have acted on his suggestion and forbid the employment of boys under eighteen as night messengers. Eight states have made 21 years the age limit for night messengers. The National Child Labor Committee now is carrying on campaigns in twenty-four other states to bring about the enactment into law of Riss' idea.

LATEST NEWS FROM RICHMOND

CONGRESSMEN MAY NOT VISIT COAST

Rivers and Harbors Committee Is Likely to Change Plans.

RICHMOND, June 8.—In a letter to friends, Congressman Charles F. Curry announces that the nineteen members of the rivers and harbors committee of the House may not be able to come to this coast in August as was planned. The cities desiring harbor appropriations are raising $50,000 to entertain the congressmen. Curry writes as follows:

"The Rivers and Harbors Committee is still only prospecting. The committee is very anxious to make the trip, but whether it will do so or not will depend on the time the rivers and harbors bill passes the Senate and its provisions are harmonized and agreed to in conference and the passage of the 'trust bills.'"

"The committee passed a resolution to accept the invitation to visit California at a date to be fixed by Chairman Workman. He has not fixed the date and says he will not do so until after pending legislation has been disposed of."

"The Richmond inner harbor, Navy river, Sacramento river flood control and Pinole wharves project approved by the Senate committee in the form in which they were included in the House bill, but the Senate committee has not reported on it."

to do so for several days. Sincerely yours, CHARLES F. CURRY."

ANOTHER BELL ON EL CAMINO REAL

Hayward Dedicates Symbol, and Congressman Knowland Is Orator.

HAYWARD, June 5.—El Camino Real, the royal road on which the Franciscan Fathers traveled from one mission to another in the days of Spanish Occupation, was marked here yesterday by the dedication of an iron bell hung by the roadside at the edge of the plaza on East Fourteenth street, opposite the site of the Don Castro home, one of the first adobe dwellings built in Alameda county. The simple ceremonies were under the auspices of the Hill and Valley Club, a women's organization of this city.

On behalf of the club, Mrs. F. F. Allen presented the bell, "emblematic of the iron strength and courage of the early Franciscan missionaries," to the city and the address of acceptance was made by Mayor Charles W. Meyer. While a company of the National Guard stood at "present arms" two little children, Betty Rosenberg and Lawrence Powell, removed the American flag from the hall and its standard. The formal dedication and blessing of the bell were performed by Rev. Father Angelus Bill, O. F. M., of San Francisco.

KNOWLAND FOLLOWS.

Congressman Joseph R. Knowland, president of the California Historic Landmarks League of the Native Sons of the Golden West, delivered the address of the day.

"Next year a host of visitors will travel this historic road," he said, "and their presence will be an unconscious tribute to the men who have had hardships and gave up their lives in the devotion to duty. The Franciscan Fathers were the real founders of civilization on the western shores and it is to their labors that we owe the growth of culture where the primitive society of the Indian ruled supreme."

Arrangements are being made by the chamber of commerce of Mission San Jose for the dedication of a bell in honor of Mission San Jose de Guadalupe in the near future. The bell will bear the inscription:

"Mission San Jose de Guadalupe, established June 11, 1797. Oakland, 27 miles. San Jose 15 miles."

In connection with the ceremonies, the new school at that place will be dedicated on the same day.

CROPS AIDED BY RECENT RAINS

Moisture Washes Insects From Prunes: Farmers Are Jubilant.

Oroville, June 8.—The rain of the last two days will be beneficial to this section of the county, according to local farmers and orchardists. Most of the hay has been stacked, and what is left in the field will not be damaged to any marked extent.

It will be a benefit to the fruit trees against the summer washing of the figs and spiders. The cherries are nearly picked, while the apricots and other fruits are not far enough advanced to suffer from the rain.

Stockton, June 8.—Frank Kahn, chairman of the Democratic County Central Committee, is to have opposition by his own party in his plan to become postmaster, a position now held by Frank E. Ellis, a Republican, whose term expires next January.

Joe D. Campbell, a Democrat of prominence, will also seek the Federal position, having just announced his candidacy. The struggle of the two men for a Federal plum is the subject of much speculation.

Kahn has been endorsed by the Democratic Central Committee and is declared the logical aspirant for the position. Campbell declared that he did not enter the race blindly and "his friends in Washington."

Palo Alto, June 8.—George L. Dunbar, well-known resident of this city, was found dead at his post of duty at the Masonic Temple by an electrician who happened to stray into the hall of the building. Dunbar had the capacity of caretaker for the building for the past five years. It is believed that the cause of death was heart failure. The dead man leaves a widow and two sons.

Merced, June 8.—Petitions are being circulated by the drays, asking the trustees to sell another tract and dry regulation for July 1, which would give three months and one week after the city was voted by nine votes. Saloon men are considering asking the trustees to defer announcement of the selection of the eight who are to receive licenses until after action on the election petitions.

San Rafael, June 8.—Martin Lodge No. 191, Free and Accepted Masons, will give its annual "Jedies" night" in Masonic Hall, Tuesday evening. The program includes vocal selections by George B. Williams, dancing and supper.

ALLEGED LEPER CAUSES CONCERN

John R. Early's Case Presents Grave Difficulties to the Treasury Department.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—J. R. Early, the alleged leper, whose unexpected return to Washington recently created such consternation, continued today to cause the Treasury Department officials considerable trouble. Early is the ward of the insurance of Columbia, but will not be allowed to remain here indefinitely. Yet any plans to move him must be approved by the leper himself.

The suggestion that he be sent to Hawaii involves many complexities, even if it were possible to care for him in the Hawaiian leper colony at government expense. It would be necessary to pay him consent to all states through which a leper could pass in making the trip, and it is likely such consent would not be granted unless the government gave assurances that Early will not leave his car and mingle with the public, as he did upon leaving the leper colony where he was employed on Puget sound.

Mrs. Robert W. Lyons, who was injured in a motorhome accident at Idora, has filed a suit for damages against the owner of the motorhome.

ORIENTAL BAZAAR TO BE GIVEN IN CHURCH

RICHMOND, June 5.—The plans for the Oriental bazaar to be given by the Ladies Aid Society of Wesley Methodist Church, have outgrown the original idea, and so the ladies have decided to give the affair in the church parlors instead of at the home of Mrs. Lamant in Eleventh street. The affair will be featured by the presence of a number of pretty Chinese girls in their native costumes. These young women will serve tea and take a part in the program. The committees are: Mesdames Conn, Mervy Bennett and Yedon; decoration, Mesdames Wood, Brown and Smith; reception, Mesdames Caffee, Beach and Dixon; refreshment, Mesdames Brown, Ketchum, Hammond and Enkeman, music and program, George Bennett and Miss Minnie Jones.

to put an end to the torture: In the name of the blessed Joan of Arc, bear them in their hour of need."

A scene of disorder ensued. A suffragette rose and started a prayer, but she had scarcely uttered a word when a woman worshipper cleaved her hands over the mouth of the suffragette.

Following severely and continuing the suffragette was forced by men and men parishioners down the aisle to the doors and into the street.

FRUITVALE LOYAL SONS GIVE MINSTREL SHOW

FRUITVALE, June 8.—The Loyal Sons of the Fruitvale Christian church gave a minstrel show in the Armory Hall of the Congregational church last Friday night, to a crowded house. Miss Louise Brown presided at the piano.

End men were J. B. Nann, Leland Gilen, Joe Hunter and J. Derric. Other performers were Morris Mark, Clifford and others.

I. D. E. S. ORDER IN RELIGIOUS FETE

The Celebration of Holy Ghost Draws Thousands to Ceremonies at Concord.

CONCORD, June 8.—Five thousand people from all sections of the Ynaculo valley and eastern Contra Costa county assembled here yesterday to participate in the annual celebration of the Holy Ghost or Pentecost festival of the I. D. E. S. order. Foremost in the celebration was the procession which escorted the silver replica of Queen Isabella's crown from the I. D. E. S. hall to St. Catherine's All Saints church. This white, the central part of the festival, which dates from the days of the revival of spirit from the Moore by Ferdinand and Isabelle. Little Annie Terry was queen of the procession, assisted by Bernice Calderia and Gertrude.

The religious ceremonies in the church were followed by a baseball game, an open-air barbecue and dancing. In the ball game Concord defeated San Leandro by a score of 7 to 0. The batteries were: Concord, Murchio and Rock; Ocala; San Leandro, Crocker and Rodgers.

Funeral of Captain George E. Munroe Is One of Largest in Years.

RICHMOND, June 8.—The funeral of the late Captain George Elery Munroe, pioneer navigator for the Standard Oil Company, which was held this afternoon from Trinity Episcopal church, was one of the largest in the history of the city. The deceased had served with the Rockefeller company for nearly half a century and was widely known up and down the coast, seafaring men and employees of the company being present in large numbers from abroad. Munroe was a member of Oakland Lodge No. 171, B. P. O. E., and there was a large delegation of the Elks from that city on hand.

Richmond Lodge of Elks turned out in large numbers and escorted the remains of the late Captain to the church. The church, where services were held by Rev. D. A. Linsley. The remains were taken to Oakland for cremation.

MANY CHANGES IN STAFF OF MORNING NEWSPAPER

RICHMOND, June 8.—A reorganization of the staff of the Daily News this morning was announced here a few weeks ago, has been announced. George A. Carrer, who came to the paper as editor first and who two months ago took the position of manager, also has resigned, and Harry Richardson of San Francisco has taken his place.

Raymond Richmond, city editor, it is understood, will go into business for himself with a Sacramento newspaper.

one of the valley towns. W. S. Stewart, the reporter on the News, leaves today for the largest Columbia to be connected with the sales department of a tire company. Miss Edith Kaiser, publisher of the News, has also resigned her position.

Richardson, it is expected, will announce the personnel of his staff today.

NEW ALIEN BILL OPPOSED BY JEWS

Leading Member of Society Appeals to President to Veto Measure.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 5.—Declaring that it was up to President Wilson to prevent enactment of the Burnett-Birmingham Immigration bill, the Jewish community in Atlantic City today issued a statement opposing the measure. The statement, which was signed by the leading members of the Jewish community, declared that the measure was "a direct attack upon the Jewish race and a violation of the principles of democracy." It also stated that the measure was "a direct attack upon the Jewish race and a violation of the principles of democracy."

REGRETS OUTCASTS.

uplift movement, Samuel Dorf, New York, grand master of the Order of B'nai B'rith, the parent body, said it was to be regretted that the Jewish race had suffered "because of our Left Louies and Gyps the Blood."

While Studying Law in Lonely Cabin.

Charles Bungeard, former student at the University of California, who lived in a lonely cabin on the shoulder of Mt. Tamalpais, shot and killed himself yesterday morning within a few yards of the trail where the famous Stanford Walkers were passing on their way to Muir Woods and the ocean.

BILL AT ORPHEUM CHARMS

Willard Mack and Marjorie Rambeau, in Willard Mack's own new play, "So Much for So Much," will come to the Macdonough Theater tonight, supported by a special company of unusual dramatic strength and power. This rather unique play was recently produced at the Alhambra Theater in San Francisco, where it secured sensational success of unlimited magnitude. In "So Much for So Much" Mack has written a drama that stands all the tests that a successful play must undergo.

Marjorie Rambeau, one of Oakland's best beloved actresses, will have a splendid opportunity to display her dramatic skill in the exacting role of Mary Brennan, the young stenographer. Mack himself will be seen in the part of the reporter, Tom Hughes. The two stars will have the excellent support of the well known character actress, Annie MacDonough.

William Hodge, who comes to the Macdonough theater for four days, commencing Tuesday, June 22, matinee Wednesday, will direct from Chicago where he has enjoyed the longest run given any play this being the famous "Omar, the Tentmaker."

ORPHEUM.

Contrary to the belief that an actress always depends on her lines and never deviates so much as a hairbreadth from them, she uses her wits as well as her voice. There's just where Bessie Wynne, the little star on this week's Orpheum bill, makes her hit. She gets laughs and encores.

For instance, there was a very pretty scene in a scene. Bessie was singing a song, "I'm a baby," and the little girl in the audience caught her eye. She knelt on the stage, singing to the baby instead of to the bald-headed row, as is her wont—until that last line, "I'm a baby." Then Bessie stopped, blushed, giggled, and the audience roared. She sang that last line to the gallery.

Miss Wynne brings several catchy new songs with her, and some very old ones that aren't new. She "gets them over," looks charming, and is more than pleasing, and, as remarked—she uses her wit. Robert T. Haines, noted actor, is appearing in a clever bit of work by William J. Hurlbut, a California author. It's another angle in the "Eternal Triangle" but man and woman plan elopement. Unassuming husband out of house; enter burglar, a la Raffles. Breaks up elopement orders would be eloper from house and warns woman. That's about all there is to it—but it looks much bigger when Haines and his clever company are through. Haines, as the Unknown Man, is ably supported by Esther Van Rivinge, Mark Fenton and Charles Wynne.

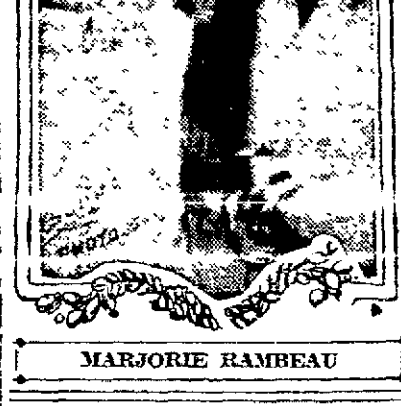

Bob Matthews and Al Shavne present a "Dope" fantasy with a few Egyptian mummies in that dance, one or two songs and a few other things that make one laugh in the collection. The act made a considerable hit. The Kramers, remarkable gymnasts, Oerita, the clever little girl, and her mother, Mrs. Oerita, are presenting a motion picture round out the bill.

PANTAGES

Replete with catchy numbers, beautiful dances and costumes and pretty girls in vaudeville, the Pantages, one of the most elaborate vaudeville companies ever staged in vaudeville is the big feature this week at the Oakland Pantages. It's a four-scene opera condensed into twenty-five minutes for vaudeville use and, strange to say, has suffered little if any in the condensation. George H. Ford as Menheto, presents a start-conception and also is heard in a side-splitting "drunk" song. Billie Dodge, Josephine Claret, Jeanette Lockwood and Virginia Drew are the principals. Wartenberg Brothers, foot jugglers, present an act as difficult as it is startling. Music, dainty singing and dancing violinist, does a feat of comedy impossible—plays a violin and does it while pinning on one foot the while. Scott and Wallace present several songs. Few ones, and a good deal of comedy. Joseph Remington offers a clever sketch in "The Millinery Salesman." Miss Ollie Marshall and Miss Beatrice Thorn support him.

MARJORIE RAMBEAU

COLUMBIA

Mike and Lila still stay in trouble. This time, however, the scene of their trouble and tribulations is laid in Georgia. Mike and Lila are in the middle of a fight on the train going there. The trip is a laugh from New York to Atlanta, while the train bumps along over the road of mirth. "The Cupid Express" is probably one of the biggest hits the Columbia has put on this season and will eclipse almost everything but the big surprise coming in two weeks. This surprise, said Ben Brown, nervous, by the way, has been told that it is yet, and will kill him. "The Cupid Express" is all the Columbia favorites appear in this week's joy-ride. George Spaulding is well heard on a plantation near Ruby Lang as Mrs. Dooley, Vilma Stech as Evelyn, Mike's daughter, James Duncan as the conda on the train and Jack W. Ford as the train conductor. Ruby Lang is also in the cast.

One of the main hits in the piece is Miss Lang's solo, with a cello and bell in which Martin Hobbs and Edward O'Connell add materially to the success of the bit. "Down Georgia Way" is sung by Dot Wilson, and Anita Marshall sings "My City—Oakland," written by Fred A. Campbell.

IDORA PARK.

Musical comedy will commence at Idora park Friday evening, when Ferris Hartman, the favorite comedian of California theatergoers, opens in the first production, "The Great New York Light Opera Success." The success of this production is the most successful in the history of the park, as the management has made arrangements for a first-class company and for the presentation of the best musical comedies that have not before been seen at popular prices and which have big runs in the eastern theaters.

With the exception of the Inimitable Hartman, the greatest comedian of the Pacific coast, and one or two other company will be almost entirely new to eastbay theatergoers. New scenery and new costumes have also been prepared for the season. Myrtle Dinkwall, formerly of the Tivoli and more recently soprano of the Gaiety in San Francisco, will open at Idora as Madame Sherry, Jeanette Lockwood, formerly of the Tivoli; Josie Hart, and Alice McComb, the beautiful University of California girl who entered light opera a season ago, Ruby Chamberlain, an eastern tenor, Harry Polard, well-known in the bay region, and Paisley Noon, a baritone, will be among the principals in the company. There will be a large chorus of beautiful girls.

Preparations have been made to present "Havana," "The Red Mill," "Jumping Jupiter," "The Merry Widow" and other big eastern successes during the season. "Madame Sherry," the opening offering, is a French vaudeville, the book and lyrics being by Otto Harbach and the music, which is of the catchy, buoyant type, by Karl Heschke.

OAKLAND PHOTO

"The Master Mind" is a master film. In its interesting plot it tells its story of a master crook, who makes him the master of every situation and at the very end of the tale a moral is taught. It is the mastery of love over the film crook's mind proves itself big enough to bow to it. Mr. Breesse' debut before the motion picture public is one that he and the lucky company can be proud of, and one that the film goers will applaud. The role is the title one, and his work is of the quality that leaves no opening for criticism. As "The Master Mind" Mr. Breesse is master of himself in the story, the action and more of the suspense in which his spectators find themselves and from which he does not liberate until the last act of the film. I open my hand and let you go because my love is stronger than my hate.

As usual the Pathé Crook is full of interesting scenes. Breesse' depiction of the crook's mind is a big eye- opener. He races against Princeton and Yale, wins at Venn Cruz, horse races, the English polo team, the King of England at Cambridge, and an interesting and laughable show are included. The usual first run Keystone comedy completes the program.

Expert Opens One For Women

J. P. BURKE.

I received orders to close out the entire stock of the China Room Store, 321 Washington street. In order to accomplish this, said Burke, I closed the store Saturday night and will keep the same closed Monday and Tuesday to arrange and mark the stock.

You can rest assured that if the women ever had a chance to buy as possible and to pay no attention to original cost.

I will do my utmost to open the doors to the public Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. I hope to accomplish this in order to give the out-of-town people (Wednesday being market day) a chance to anticipate the public. Remember, doors open Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

My instructions from this company

WORK HARD AND VICTORY IS WON

Next Friday, June 12th, is the date fixed for the auditorium election. There remain four days of effort on behalf of the added securities, three of preliminary and one of final work. If the proponents of the measure continue the campaign as they have begun it, the victory will be theirs. Sentiment favors the completion of the auditorium. Many those who have voted against the bond issue want the structure finished, and have cast their ballots in the negative for other reasons. With the organization of the strong "Lions" committee and the earnest appeal made to the electorate to get in line and authorize the expenditure for benefit of Oakland, sentiment has been changing and all that is required is to POLL THE FULL VOTE of the

This done there will be a safe majority favorable to the proposition.

But a change of commanders is needed. GENERAL PATHY must be sent to the rear and GENERAL ACTIVELY placed at the head. The way to win victories is to start fighting early and keep it up all day. Do not permit anyone delude you that it is a walk-over; but always work as if success was to be achieved by the narrowest of margins. That's the only way to carry an election; that is the only way to win this one. The auditorium must be completed. Economic, business and sentimental reasons demand it.

Fathers Defective, Says Chickabiddy.

ancinnati's Twentieth Century, an organization of human beings that have in the past been designated as little lower than angels, object to the institution of Father's Day." Mrs. Dora, president-general or general president, says of mere men: "Fathers, taken as a class, do not stand on the same level as mothers. Fathers are very defective." We are willing to admit the first count in the indictment. We never claimed to stand on the same level with the divine known as women, but we do object to being designated as defective. Nor do we like the action of the Twentieth Century leading to the institution of "Father's Day." Because the man ought to have a little consideration. He may have his shortcomings and his failings, but take him by and large and he is usefulness and his utilities. It is father who digs the holes and lays the sewer pipes, thus contributing to the sanitary conditions that obtain. It is father who builds the railroads, the engines and wrestles with the freight. It is father constructs the automobiles and it is father who pays for and while Mary Jane may learn to preside at the steering wheel when a tire blows out or something goes wrong with the car it is father who makes good the conditions. Mary Jane rights when it comes to entertaining the passengers on the train, but when the dingus under the hood needs oiling or the gas tank requires filling it is father who gets the grease on his fingers, not Mary.

Father is the old pelican who gets up early in the morning after a hurried breakfast hurries to shop or office and humps his back until dewy evening acquiring simoleons with which to the mill going. It is father who holds the wheel of the ship across the ocean, guiding the vessel on her course and it is father who is down below in the stoke hole feeding the hungry boiler with the coal. It is father who is in the "crow's nest" watching for accidents that do not occur, and it is father who rigs the machinery that unloads the material for Juliette's silk dress on the factory and hauls it to the store.

Father is a good old scout, everything considered, these abidies to the contrary notwithstanding. He is here and everywhere and always around when he is wanted, and that he is wanted every once in a while. Why shouldn't he have a special time at which he gets a hearing, you can gamble no old bachelor will be permitted to mix up in the business, the same token that's more than mother can say, for we are on reading reports of mothers' gatherings that a whole lot of sales head the program who never were mothers and never feel to kick on the action alluded to and we know the real world will stand in with us, because Mother and Dad have been with all their lives and always will be, exceptions like the Twentieth Century being noted. When they locked hands in the parson and signed up in double harness for the trip through this vale of tears they meant it, and you will notice that since their existence has been one grand hymn of harmony but few discords. The real mother isn't going to kick on having an inning, because she knows he is entitled to it, glad if he can find the time to take advantage of the opportunity. She knows Dad isn't defective, either; she knows he is an old soul, a real man with the bark on, a hustling, busy person, always striving, facing trouble with a smile never admitting he is licked, but like the old fighter in the

When at last my strength is gone
I never will give in,
But rest myself and catch my breath
And then go on again.

That's the kind of a man Dad is wherever you find him. True there are exceptions to all rules, but take Dad on an average and you will find him a real man. As noted that the Twentieth Century says but for the race would die out. Well, if Dad wasn't here there would be no race.

DON'T TAKE THIS ALONG WITH YOU!

—BY THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE CARTOONIST.

Perpetual Optimist Is Talented Woman.

Optimists are valuable assets for communities, one being worth more than a thousand pessimists. The optimist is the real builder, the pessimist shrinks from effort lest it end in failure. The optimist is ever taking a chance on the future, the pessimist is always afraid something terrible will happen and hoping it will not. The optimist sees the silver lining to the cloud, the pessimist notes nothing but the dull gray. The optimist is, ever hunting for something good to talk about, the pessimist hides lest he fall over an obstacle and bark his shins.

Santa Cruz, by the shores of Monterey Bay, has perhaps the greatest optimist in the State in the person of Mrs. Josephine Clifford McCracken, an elderly lady—she admits having been "Grandma" for many years—of literary talent who writes for The Sentinel and other papers. For many years she has been telling of the attractions of the town and its environs. She has painted the hills in the glow of the emerald and spangled them with the wild flowers that add so much to the beauty of that section of California. Under the deft touch of a magic pen she has draped the trees with honeysuckle, lined the banks with bluebells and filled the air with the scent of the lilac. She has found new dells and falling waters, new glades and glens radiant in the splendor of Nature and described all in words vivid and intense. Each sunset has had for her a new glory, each breaker that died with a sob on the sand has told her a different story. She has discovered new charms in river and brook, and day after day, week after week, year after year, untiring, persistent, with little incentive for work, save the love she bears for her home community, she has told of the multifarious scenes of loveliness in its vicinity.

This good old woman with hair of silver and face showing in its sweetness the advance of time, is Santa Cruz's perpetual booster. Noisy men have come and gone, their schemes have fallen to earth like houses of cards, newspaper men have drifted in, written a few articles and vanished, transient boomers have flitted about acquiring such revenue as might be obtained and departed, but she has remained at her post like some stern old Roman soldier, allowing nothing to halt her work, but ever and ever saying something good on behalf of the City of the Surf.

Her compensation has not been commensurate with the value of her efforts—for prophets are not without honor save in their own countries, and optimists are prophets ever—but despite the fact that in her case effort has been about its only reward, she has never faltered.

Some day this good old lady will pass away and then all Santa Cruz will unite in strewing flowers on her casket and covering her last resting place with blossoms. THE TRIBUNE believes, however, in giving these in life, hence this little tribute to the worth of one of the most patriotic, self-denying, home-loving, town-loving women in all California, and may her example be emulated, for she is worth more to Santa Cruz than almost anything that might be mentioned.

SUNRISE SLEEP CURE

Sleep—that is what gunmen, pickpockets, divorcees, speeders, tango maniacs and many others need, if Prof. Carl Ludwig Schleich has the right idea.

"The civilized man or woman of today," the professor is speaking, "must learn to sleep at least ten hours of the twenty-four if he or she expects to check the modern nervous life and temperment."

Sunset and sunrise are nature's time for sleeping and awakening. Sleep quietly one-half of your life away. You will have twice as much out of the other half. Sleep is the preserver of the spiral electricity of the blood vessels—it is the key that winds up the timepiece of life.

Twenty Years Ago Today

The wedding of S. E. Russell and Miss Anna McCarthy, both of this city, was celebrated at the Church of St. Patrick.

Dr. Henry Brown has resigned from the First Free Baptist church.

W. W. Haskell, D. W. Martin, G. H. Payne and Dr. Re. holds, all of Alameda, left for a horseback trip to the Sierras.

The marriage of Frank M. Todd of the city of Los Angeles and Miss Margaret A. Woodall will be celebrated at the residence of the bride's parents in Berkeley on the evening of June 12.

Mrs. M. J. Lavance and daughters, Adah and Blanche are visiting the family vineyard in Fresno for a couple of weeks.

Stuart Robson will open his engagement in Shakespeare's Comedy of Errors.

The little cottage at 651 Linden street is locked and barred. "Wild urchins and grave, sober men peer in through the broken windows and then hurry away."

They say nothing yet through the long hours of the night echoes and re-echoes a ceaseless tramp-tramp-tramp of something which is not of the sea nor of the land. And unlovely awful silence prevails, with the exception of the footstep.

What is it? Who can tell? There is one woman who has seen something, the recital of which frightens the staidest resident of the neighborhood, who pass the place at night with hastened footsteps and bated breath. That woman is Mrs. John Harrington who lives two doors above the residence of Mrs. Harrington will not tell her story, but she has dropped enough hints among the neighbors to enable the complete story to be formed. A few nights since her attention was attracted by a figure standing on the roof of an old shed. Her blood was chilled as she recognized the familiar form and features of John Brady who murdered his wife and then committed suicide in the Church of the Immaculate Conception last March and who resided in the now empty house. Even as she gazed the thing vanished in the fast gathering dusk. Opinion in the matter is somewhat divided, but the majority of the neighbors hold that the spirit of the murderer cannot rest.

It was a piece of silk embroidery that had come from Vermont, strawberries looking good enough to eat, the work pronounced excellent by skilled judges, but the maker and sender was modest in her estimate of what she had done for art. She wrote apologetically that it was not very satisfactory. That she would improve as she grew older. She was only 94.

There are many of us at 34 who have much to learn from this bright and promising young lady. With an immense experience of the world extending over a decade of maturity we are prepared to say that life is not worth living. Our motto is that of civics. We grab at all the proverbial philosophy that is on the lips of the young and old alike, and we wagging of the head as if we were the one new thing under the sun and a quite recent discovery of our own.

But the girl of 94 evidently has a contempt for that school of thought. Her letters are vivacious. They reveal a lively sense of humor, and there is wit in them that might make a pessimist believe in the value of life.

She is still looking forward, not backward. Her future is not the past. She may glance over half a dozen generations through the last century, but she is considering for the children of today, endeavoring to tell her for all's sake and the children's sake, and resolving to improve through all the many backward and smiling years that are left her.

Those glorious ones of 34 have penetrated on and on into the larger recesses of the human life, but she is just on the threshold, and it is to be hoped that she will not be content to stay there.

And for the peace of their souls, a glorious bouquet of June sunrises.

HOUSES FOR BATTLESHIPS

A smudge of smoke on the horizon then two skeleton towers of steel lattice work just above the skyline. A battleship! A United States battle ship? Why? Because United States battleships are the only ones that have masts of lattice steel tubing—towers that look as if they were meant to train Crinson Rambler roses and 100 or more feet high. Fighting tops are obsolete in the United States Navy. The men who occupy the nests at the top of the masts nowadays are unarmed. Their sole usefulness to the ship consists in finding the range for the gunners down below. The towers are made of the lattice steel, so they will remain upright, although riddled with shot from an enemy's ship. She'll pass through the network of tubing until every strand is severed, and still the tower will stand for a minute—Kansas City Star.

LEARN MEDICINE POLITICAL HONOR

Ex-Director of Mint Refuses Candidates for Republican Congressional Job.

Frank A. Leach, former director of the United States Mint, and for many years prominent in public life, both state and national, will not be a candidate for the Republican nomination for congressman from this district. He stated clearly today, in view of the fact that his name had been mentioned in that connection, that he has no desire for further political honors and that his private interests would at this time prevent him from accepting the nomination.

"While I deeply appreciate the compliment that has been paid me by my friends, I cannot see my way clear to accept the nomination for congressman," he said. "The Republicans have been searching for a suitable man to fill the office. A young man, clean-cut and of high character, should be selected to serve the people of this state. He should be elected to the office and kept there, repeatedly, making it a lifetime job."

When a new man goes to Washington he has to become familiar with a vast amount of difficult procedure. He has to make good before he obtains the recognition that will benefit his constituency. As his length of service increases he becomes more valuable and he should be kept there if he is the right man. The role of congressman is a difficult one and what California gets largely depends upon his activities at Washington.

"At no time have I sought the nomination and my name was used without warrant. However, I considered it a high compliment, but must decline to become a candidate."

CANDIDATES ON TOUR.

How far north will Captain John D. Fredericks of Los Angeles get before he finds the political field too chilly for him and how far south will Major Francis V. Keessling go before he finds things getting warm for him? Captain Fredericks of Los Angeles has the endorsement of the Southern Young Republicans for gubernatorial candidate and Major Keessling is strongly backed by the Northern Young Republicans. Both are off on their tours, leaving prospects behind, and with apprehension before. In the meantime William C. Ralston and Charles M. Belshaw have opened their campaigns for the same nomination. The race is on with a pretty even start, but what it will be at the half way primaries is a matter of deep speculation. However, the Young Republicans are split over the matter. Their get-together convention has been postponed until July and maybe by that time something will turn up to bring about a unanimous opinion as to a candidate. If not it will probably be left to the primaries to decide the three who will have to get out and get under.

"I am unalterably opposed to endorsing any candidates for past organizations before the party election, since the official duty of such organizations is to the party involves absolutely fair treatment of all candidates and the great party rank and file, whose interests have been entrusted to such organizations," is the expression of Captain Keessling. "It is contrary to the primary law and of the times for any party leaders, as such or otherwise, to attempt to circumvent the rights of either the Republican electors or the Republican who seek Republican nomination to private office. It is contrary to the Republican nomination for governor is a matter between the candidates for that nomination and the Republican electors who alone have the right to confer the nomination."

Charles M. Belshaw opened his campaign in his home town of Antioch last week with an enthusiastic meeting. Then he started on an automobile tour, holding street meetings Saturday in Brentwood, Oakley, Byron, Tracy, Vernalis, Newman, Patterson and Crow's Landing. He will visit Salinas today and tomorrow speak at Visalia and Bakersfield. Then he will return to the vicinity of Stockton.

SIXTEEN DEPUTIES PUT ON ROCKEFELLER ESTATE

POCAHONTAS, N. Y., June 8.—To guard against molestation of John D. Rockefeller and his son at Pocahontas Hills, thought to be threatened through recent attempts at demonstration and discussion here in connection with the Colorado strike developments, sixteen deputies from the White Plains County Jail were placed yesterday on the Rockefeller estate, after conference between Mr. Rockefeller and Sheriff Doyle. These deputies last night that he regarded the situation at Pocahontas Hills as "acute."

Mr. Rockefeller attended church at Pocahontas Hills yesterday.

The trustees of the village are said to have been impressed with the pleas made before them in favor of the strike, and will hold another meeting tomorrow to hear representatives of the Free Speech League, a statement from the League announced last night.

WILL CHINESE ARTISANS BE ALLOWED TO LAND?

PEKING, June 8.—Chinese connected with the Panama Pacific Exposition at San Francisco are waiting anxiously to see whether they will be permitted to land. The Chinese government has announced that it will permit the Chinese to land on the ship Chiao Maru will all be permitted to land.

Some of the Chinese newspapers here have made attacks on the United States, because, although the exposition committee has promised to accept the Chinese exhibit, the United States immigration officials and the steamship companies have refused to accept the Chinese exhibit.

RETIRED PRINCIPAL HONORED BY TEACHERS

Miss A. E. Walton, the retiring principal of the Tompkins school of this city, was the honored guest at a luncheon given by the teachers of that school today. In the lunch room at the Tompkins school, Miss Walton had farewell to the members of the faculty as she will retire from the local school department, Wednesday, when all the Oakland schools will close for the summer vacation. For the past 25 years, Miss Walton has been teaching in the schools of this city.

THREE VICTIMS SUCCUMB TO CHICAGO HEAT WAVE

CHICAGO, June 8.—Three deaths attributed to the heat of the last two days were reported today by the health department. The three victims were an elderly woman, a young man and a young woman.

SAVE 'EM UP FOR HUBBY

MRS. MARY L. HAINES, who makes cookery a pleasure, and booth in Household Economy Show which will open tonight.

"The principal use of a dog—according to many a housewife—is to eat scraps. A piece of meat, for instance, left over from a dinner, goes to the dog. That's not economy, according to Mrs. Mary L. Haines, gastronomic and culinary expert, whose middle name ought to be Economy. One of the principal things she will teach, during her cooking course, which will open under the auspices of THE TRIBUNE tonight in the big Pure Food and Household Economy Show, will be how to use such remnants without a dog. Mayor Mott will press the button formally opening the exposition.

"In other words," Mrs. Haines says, "let Hubby be the dog instead of the goat. Never a man objected to left-over meat—if he didn't know it—and there's no reason why he should. He'll know the difference when his bills come in—and perhaps wonder.

LESSON FOR NEWLY-WEDS.

"That's where the bride makes her mistake. She isn't economical. It brings up the high cost of living when there's no need of it. That's one of the objects of this big show. It's to teach economy. The grocers, who are giving this show, don't like to be blamed for the high cost of living, and this show is proving their alibi."

But to revert to the left-over meat that should go to the dog. Here's the way Mrs. Haines would take care of it:

Chop it and for each cupful add a cupful of white sauce. Add one egg, and a teaspoonful of minced capers or parsley. Pour this over hot baking powder biscuits, cut open. To one cupful of white sauce add meat, capers and parsley. Stir well, add yolk of egg, and stir until set. If there's gravy left over, use it instead of white sauce. Doesn't it sound appetizing?

White sauce is a gravy—very easy to make. Mrs. Haines will show how, in THE TRIBUNE cooking school. She'll show everything there is to cooking. It's a class for experts, for novices—for all. And the women of Oakland will never again be at a loss for something to make. The expert will lecture, demonstrate, and give recipes daily in the big tent where the show is being held throughout the two weeks. Great crowds of women today gathered for the first visit to the food show and school, and from the looks of it THE TRIBUNE's latest effort to aid the housewife is going to be a big success.

Cupid and cooking, hand in hand, says the teacher. She's teaching the cooking. Cupid, she says, can do the rest. Ten thousand people are expected at the opening tonight.

The first baby show and cooking school will be held tomorrow.

CITY MAY MANAGE NEW BOATHOUSE

Oakland is to go into the amusement business. Confronted with an unexpected situation with regard to the new boathouse on Lake Merritt, the city will undertake to install boating equipment and rent boats and canoes to the public.

When the boathouse was built it was thought that it could be leased to a private company or to an individual, who would conduct a boating house such as that of A. Kendall now on Lake Merritt, but a provision of the city charter makes it impossible to lease the privilege for more than twelve months and nobody wished to provide the expensive equipment if assured of only one year's business.

As a result the playground department, through A. Tashira, vice-president, and George E. Dickie, superintendent, appeared before the city council this morning to ask for an appropriation of $3525 to purchase thirty rowboats, twenty canoes, a passenger launch, a passenger barge, five sailboats, three detachable motor boats and a motor launch, a landing float, to cost $1000, and boat accessories, life preservers, oars, tools and shop.

Commissioner Turner suggested that this estimate might be pruned considerably, and asked that figures and estimates be prepared, with an estimate of the probable revenue from renting the boats, and also of the probable cost of maintenance. This will be prepared. Under the city goes into the boat concession business the boathouse constructed on the shores of Lake Merritt will remain a pleasure house and a source of income for the city, at least for the limited period of one year.

DIANEED WOMAN IS SUMMONED BY DEATH

LIFTING UP BLOCKADE DRIVES OFF WAR CLOUD

Mediators Resume Negotiations at Niagara Falls

MEXICO CITY, June 8.—The Mexican government today decided to suspend the effects of the blockade of Tampico, which had been ordered.

This step was taken upon the government's learning that the mediators at Niagara Falls were taking concrete action in regard to the suspension of the blockade of Tampico, reported to have called from an American port with arms for the Constitutionalists, and also to prevent a setback in the peace negotiations.

The Mexican government, in ordering the blockade of Tampico, had no intention of interfering with commercial traffic. Its intention was only to prevent the Constitutionalists from receiving arms and ammunition.

HUERTA EXPLAINS. Roberto Esteve Ruiz, the Mexican foreign minister made the following statement: "I have received information today conference that the peace negotiations are well advanced and no difficulty will be encountered in the suspension of the blockade of Tampico. Therefore the proposed blockade at Tampico has not interfered with the negotiations.

The Mexican government, upon learning that the Mexican delegates and the other mediators were taking some action in regard to the suspension of the blockade of Tampico, which was reported to have sailed from an American port with arms for the Constitutionalists, has decided to suspend the effects of the Tampico blockade and not to embarrass the peace negotiations.

"The war office probably tomorrow will publish a decree to this effect in the 'Diario Oficial.'"

There was considerable talk however, that a tacit understanding may have been reached by which the Constitutionalists would not receive further shipments of arms at Tampico, and that this had influenced General Huerta to suspend the blockade.

GIVES U. S. NOTICE. WASHINGTON, June 8.—Huerta has decided after all not to blockade up Tampico and force the hand of the United States, with the possibility of disrupting the mediation proceedings at Niagara Falls. Mr. Riano, the Spanish ambassador, notified Secretary Bryan officially that that effect today.

General Huerta's dispatch announcing the suspension of the blockade, was received at the Spanish legation in Washington. The dispatch was immediately communicated to Secretary Bryan. A fuller report was made to the secretary after the translation.

The dispatch requested the Spanish ambassador to inform the American government that the suspension of the blockade had been decided by General Huerta; that notification would be published in the official paper tomorrow, and that orders had been given to the Mexican gunboats to return to Puerto Mexico.

HIS MOTIVE TOLD. General Huerta's action in calling off the blockade was inspired, it was said, by a sincere desire to end the blockade of Tampico.

In diplomatic circles Huerta's action was regarded as conclusive evidence of sincerity that he has placed the fate of his government and the settlement of the Mexican problem fully in the hands of the mediators at Niagara Falls.

The wires between Washington, Niagara Falls and Mexico City have been hot with official dispatches since the receipt Saturday afternoon of the dispatch announcing the discontinuation of the blockade. Representations of the serious nature of the crisis precipitated by his action and the decision of the American government to keep Tampico open were made to General Huerta from several quarters with a view to preventing the collapse of the peace negotiations.

CARRANZA STILL WARY. Rescinding of the Tampico blockade order was regarded as an indication that General Carranza will be received into the Niagara conference. Carranza's answer to the mediators, it was generally expected, will be forwarded from Saltillo tonight or tomorrow. Upon what terms the Constitutionalists leaders' representatives may agree to enter the negotiations were not definitely known here.

Though unconfirmed here, reports were persistent that the mediators had induced General Huerta to rescind the blockade order only after there had been some assurance from the United States as to the disposition of the blockade of Tampico. It is thought the steamer would be diverted to some other port, probably Havana, pending further mediation negotiations.

BRYAN SMILING. Secretary Bryan's face was illuminated with a smile broader than usual. He was asked if the Spanish ambassador, in announcing the suspension of the blockade of Tampico, was making any protest to the United States on behalf of Huerta relating to the landing of the Antilla's cargo or if there had been any negotiations on the part of his government and the owners of the steamer Antilla with a view to lifting the blockade of Tampico.

"I cannot discuss anything further than to state that the blockade has been suspended," was Bryan's reply. "What will be the effect of this latest development upon mediation?" he was asked.

"All I can say about mediation is that it is progressing satisfactorily," Bryan said.

"With any further degree of satisfaction than heretofore," he was asked.

"I think I would stick to plain 'satisfactorily,'" Bryan answered.

OFFICER SLAYS MAN. Second Lieutenant F. M. Houston of the Twenty-eighth Infantry, at Vera Cruz, shot a drunken Mexican who was interfering with the Mexican police, last night.

When Lieutenant Houston, at the time he was on duty, saw the man interfering with the police, he shot him.

Reporting the occurrence to the war department today, General Funston said:

"Lieutenant Houston's act is considered meritorious and killing his assailant entirely justifiable, and no further action is considered necessary."

road and what informed by Bond Export Company that the Oakland railway had sixty-five per cent.

That is now owned by the Realty Syndicate," interpreted Attorney Smith.

ESHELMAN VEXED? "The commission was not informed of that," declared Esheleman. "The commission is very much interested in this transfer. This is all new to us and we may have something to say about it later."

"The matter is easily explained," interjected McNab. "When Moore came here he didn't want to have anything to do with the United Properties and the stock was merely transferred from the Oakland Railway, which was only a temporary vehicle to carry the matter."

"There have been too many vehicles that have been the trouble with this railroad," Esheleman replied.

"Too many vehicles and too little money," Esheleman added. "The Realty Syndicate simply bought the stock from the Oakland Railway and did not of course assume the liabilities for the Oakland Railway for the 444,000 loan. Later Brockebach added that the Syndicate had acquired the stock at the time of the unending process, when the water companies, the railroad companies and the light and power companies which had been associated together in the United Properties Company, were separated.

REALTY VALUES WANTED. As Commissioner Esheleman desired to know the value of the real estate holdings of the company in addition to that of the trackage and rollingstock facilities, William J. Layman, the Oakland Realty broker, was called. He did not have the figures submitted in 1912 when a report of the property with him as they had been turned over to another firm. He was temporarily withdrawn while the necessary papers were sent for.

F. W. Frost, assistant secretary and assistant treasurer of the San Francisco, Oakland and Terminal Railway, who has been employed by the company since 1903, was then sworn. He gave the floating debt of the corporation as $4,500,000; notes payable to bank $181,000; notes and obligations of sundry individuals $26,000; the Oakland loan, $2,500,000; the Oakland loan, $1,000,000; accounts payable $151,884.17. The outstanding bonded indebtedness of the company was placed by the witness at $6,550,000.

DRUM IN CONFERENCE. John S. Drum, one of F. M. Smith's trustees, arrived at the commission meeting room shortly before noon and consulted with Attorney Brockebach. It was partly through Drum's efforts that the affairs of the corporation were brought to a successful conclusion and arranged.

'SOME' WHEAT CROP Is Staggering New Record Announced.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—Nine hundred million bushels of wheat, almost half of the average world's wheat production and a new record for the United States is the prospective total yield of the farms of the country this year, the Department of Agriculture announced today in its June crop report.

The enormous crop will be 137,000 bushels more than ever grown before in the United States in any one year. There also will be large yields of oats and barley, probably second in size in the history of the nation.

The June crop report of the department of agriculture announced today shows:

Spring wheat—Area, 17,990,000 acres; condition, 95.7 per cent; estimated yield, 14.5 bushels per acre. Estimated production, 262,000,000 bushels.

Winter wheat—condition, 92.7; yield, 18.1; production, 638,000,000.

All wheat—Area, 35,377,000 acres; condition, 93.7; yield, 16.9; production, 900,000,000 bushels.

Oats—Area, 35,383,000 acres; condition, 89.5; yield, 31.7; production, 1,210,000,000 bushels.

Barley—Area, 7,558,000 acres; condition, 95.5; yield, 27.3; production, 206,000,000 bushels.

Rye—Condition, 93.6; yield, 17.2; production, 638,000,000.

WIFE COLLAPSES IN COURT DURING TRIAL

During the preliminary examination of J. J. Walton, a young musician, on a statutory charge preferred by Mary not yet 16 years of age, before Judge R. B. Tappan today, Mrs. Walton, the pretty wife of the accused, broke down under the strain and had to be removed from the courtroom. Walton was held to answer.

Manuel Marshall, a barber, was given a $1000 bond to keep the wife of the accused in the city prison, together with a fine of $500. Marshall had been arrested on the complaint of the parents of a number of five and six-year-old girls.

WIND TOO HEAVY FOR SHAMROCK TRYOUT

SOUTHAMPTON, Eng., June 8.—The wind was too boisterous today to try out Shamrock IV challenger for the America's cup, so instead of having her first real race with the older Shamrock she was docked to prove her measure at the water line.

GETS 15 YEARS FOR STATUTORY OFFENSE

Robert West, convicted of a statutory offense in which a 13-year-old girl was the victim, was sentenced by Superior Judge Ogden today to serve 15 years in San Quentin. He was pronounced an appeal and was granted five days' stay of execution.

BATTLE HYMN OF THE SPORTING ED.

(Abject Apologies)
(By BILLY FITZ)

Mine eyes have seen the passing of the leader of the crew.
Mine ears have heard the clinking of the can that means "adieu";
No more I'll call them "Diggers" like I always used to do
As we go marching on!

Glory, glory, hallelujah,
Glory, glory, hallelujah,
Glory, glory, hallelujah,
The Oaks are Christians now!

They once were Devlin's Demons, but they found it didn't pay
Woe down within the nation which it isn't well to say

They're seeking for salvation now with lots of faith—hooray!

As we go marching on!

Gus Hietling and Art Guest executed most double steal in the fourth inning of the game, crossing the rubber with the first of the two runs scored by the Oaks.
Hietling was out at first when Guest started down to second. Hietling's throw was son who returned the throw with lightning speed, but Hietling rammed in from the third base of the ball.

The locals upset the dope by coming fifteen hits to get as many as two runs across the plate. Here's hoping they continue the good work.

The Oaks' victory in the morning might be taken as a sign of things to come. The part of Ted Kaylor. In the eighth frame with the score one all, Ted reached second base and when Hughes tried to tag him out of the bag, Kaylor struck him head in the way of the bounding runner with his cranium to centerfield. Kaylor then displayed a flash of speed and scored the second and winning run.

"Dutch" Metzger batted right handed in the afternoon game, while Ramey occupied the mound for the locals, but Kaylor was sent in, he switched back to parried swinging.

Lloyd Ramey the Oak southpaw, who has requested the local management to present him with his release, started the twirling for the locals at Ewing Field, but had to be relieved by Hansome Jack Killyear in the third inning. However, three runs had been scored on four hits by the Angels, before Ramey was benched.

Rod Murphy as a punch hitter, batted in place of Alexander in the seventh inning of the p. m. game, and came across with clear of his left hand. Murphy went out a moment later, however, when he was hit on the foot by a scorching grounder between first and second base.
Killyear's drive would have reached second on the hit, while Murphy might have scored.

Harper covered the middle garden, for the Angels in the afternoon. Alexander was indisposed, and Can Dillon thought it best to send his State league recruit to the mound.

John Zacher was charged with his first error of the season in the p. m. game. He was a base per se, but the an attempt to get Abstein at the plate.

Ellis got around to second on the wild throw.

Jack Ness slammed the p. m. on the nose in the ninth inning, the ball almost taking away a base per se. The drive came at Metzger on a line, and it was all that he could do to keep from getting hit. He accidentally knocked the ball down, which Killyear was sent in, he switched back to parried swinging.

While an overwhelming vote was cast in favor of 2 to 3 for starting the game, in the straw ballot taken at Ewing Field last week, Cal Ewing is not at all satisfied, as he is under the impression that the employees of the park influenced the fans to cast their ballot in favor of 2 to 3.
Therefore Ewing will take another vote on Wednesday and Friday of this week the result of which will be final.

Zeb Terry, the former Stanford university star, now a member of the Angels was seen at Ewing during practice periods prior to both the morning and afternoon games, but when the bell rang for the game, Dillon sent Johnson in to cover the short field.

Williams is a little fellow weighing International Federation of Amateur Athletics Meets in France.

LYONS, France, June 7.—The committee of the International Amateur Athletic Federation will meet tomorrow to settle the question defining an amateur.
The crux of the debate will be on whether the amateur's status shall be left to each federation for decision or be settled by rules applicable to all countries. In the decision of the committee will depend the eligibility as amateurs of professional athletes.

These professors classed as amateurs
The American member of the Committee on Amateurs, Alfred J. Lill Jr., president of the A. A. U., will vote for a single set of rules as also will England and France.
The rules committee reached a decision on the question of track measurements which will necessitate remeasurement of all American tracks. A majority of the members of the committee, headed by S.
G. Moss, England, succeeded in securing the passage of an amendment to rule 22 as proposed by James E. Sullivan, secretary of the A. A. U.

reads that a track shall be measured twelve inches from the inside, instead of eleven inches, as proposed by Mr. S. M. van.

It was also decided that in jumping events the uprights shall be at least twelve feet apart. The International Athletic Federation rules are to become effective January 1, 1915.

F. Burger, one of the German delegates, said today regarding the new rules:

"I think the rules the best they possibly could have adopted. James E. Sullivan is an absolute authority on sporting mat-on questions of rules."

Mr. Moss, Captain von Uggas of Sweden and Sigard Stankovic, Hungarian also expressed satisfaction with what had been done by the rules committee. Franz Reichel, delegate for France, said the new rules would be adopted immediately throughout his country.

"I think we have the finest and most complete set of athletic rules ever compiled," said James E. Sullivan. "The United States should be pleased to see her methods in athletics so largely adopted. The most noteworthy decisions of the committee were the adoption of starting penalties and a rule in the weight throwing events that a man must stay inside the circle until his put throw is marked. I regret the adoption of a rule for a dig-out at the take-off of the high jump."

...announced throughout Saturday, toward the postponement of the second match of the Oakland and San Francisco Scottish Bowling club for the club championship cup which had been scheduled for today. A telephonic message from San Francisco, received by President Wetherill before noon yesterday, reported that it was raining so heavily in that city at that time that it was necessary to call off the match, and others of the transbay club's engagements were required to be postponed. The postponement should be extended to Saturday, June 20.

Notwithstanding this telephonic announcement from across the bay, a large number of the San Francisco bowlers crossed the bay—taking a chance—presented themselves at the Lakeside Park green to report their readiness to take part in the contest. Ignorant of the postponement, they were met by telephone. But, notwithstanding the drizzling rain which greeted them on their arrival at the Lakeside Park green, the members of the Oakland and Bowling Club on the ground to extend to them the hospitalities of the city and join with them in the playing of a few rounds on two rink laid out for their special benefit, and played in the rain until it came down so heavily that everyone was ready to call quits. It was a source of great regret to the Oakland bowlers that they had come from San Francisco, who had come over with the transbay players, were among the list of the disappointed.

SLOOP ANITA DEFEATS MERRY WIDOW

With a twenty-five minute handicap over the Merry Widow, P. Christie's sloop Anita yesterday won the third annual race of the Sausalito Yacht Club for the Sorenson cup in the channel, beating Costa's sloop Pearl by less than two minutes on corrected time. The arbitrary handicap was given by the regatta committee, consisted of W. L. Sutherland, John Corcoran and Peter Delint, were well allotted, but a few minutes separating the place boats.

On the final time in the race was made by J. J. Parker's Merry Widow, two hours and eight minutes, beating Woodward's Polly, next boat in, by sixteen minutes in actual time.

...to the Sporting Editor: Two strikes and three balls on batter; next ball pitched was inside and batter tried to get out of the way, but ball hit his back and rolled foul, what decision should umpire have given? R. C. E.

...The batter had hit a foul that was all; it would hit whether it hit or not. Attention to hit it or not, it counts just the same.

...To the Sporting Editor: Who has the right to place his man for position in a baseball game, the captain or the manager? F. R.

...The manager (in league baseball).

...To the Sporting Editor: In a game of ball a pitcher worked six innings and was then taken off the mound and sent to third base. The pitcher who received him worked for three innings and at the end of the ninth could not last longer. The score was tied and the manager wanted to put the first pitcher back on the rubber but the manager of the opposing team would not allow it. He said it was against the rules. How should the argument be decided?

...The pitcher should have been allowed to return to the mound.

...To the Sporting Editor: In a game of ball the runner on third base tries to steal home. The catcher throws the ball toward the third baseman and it hits the base runner in the back, bounced over the third baseman's head and the runner scored. Should the catcher be charged with an error? P. F.

...Yes.

...To the Sporting Editor: (1) With the ball in the pitcher's delivered the ball to the batter. The pitcher then stepped off the rubber and the catcher threw the ball back to him. The catcher on third base started to run toward home, running along the third base line. Could the umpire call the runner on third out? (2) With two outs and runners on second and third base, the pitcher threw the ball over the fence for a home run. The runner on second failed to touch third base and a runner called him out. Could the runner on third be called out? Should the score count and should the batter be given a hit? A READER.

...The umpire has the right to call the runner on third out. (2) The runner should count and give that batter a hit.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., June 1. — Jimmy Clabdi, Indiana middleweight who by a display of power and skill yesterday was robbed of the victory by the referee in his fight against Jeff Smith of Philadelphia, Saturday night, was matched today with Eddie McGoorty of Chicago here July 4, for the world's championship.

Smith's award of the 36 round match was regarded as such an unfair result that the Philadelphia club will fight the fight.

The STEINWAY as a Wedding Gift

Aside from its sentimental value, the real charm of a Wedding Gift lies in its usefulness and permanency.

There are Steinways in service today that were given as Wedding Presents more than 50 years ago. They have been handed down as heirlooms from one generation to another. About them cling memories dearer than those associated with any other object in the household.

The beauty of its rich, sympathetic quality of tone—its resonant, harmonious bass—its sparkling, mellow treble—its instant response to your moods, make the Steinway MORE than a mere piano; it is like an intimate friend who has shared in your happiness and trials, and, never faltering, remains loyal and true under any and all conditions— a source from which flow comfort, pleasure and inspiration.

Then, too, in choosing the Steinway, there is comfort in the knowledge that it is the best—the STANDARD.

DAUGHTER OF PRESIDENT ORATOR

Miss Margaret Wilson to Speak at Club Women's Biennial.

CHICAGO, June 8.—Special trains bearing delegates to the biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs began arriving in Chicago today. The convention opens tomorrow.

The first special was the Colorado-California train of the Chicago and North Western.

When the train arrived at the city, the delegates were met by a committee of the city. The committee announced that it had abandoned the idea of using boy scouts as guides and baggage boys, as the scouts were too young for the work.

"That the Federation of Women's Clubs Can Do For Young Women" will be the title of the address to be given by Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of the president, it was made known public today.

CHICAGO, June 8.—Theanguard of the ten thousand delegates to the twelfth biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, to be called into session tomorrow, arrived in Chicago today. Scores of automobiles, many of them driven by local clubwomen, and the fair visitors away from the various railway stations to the six largest hotels in the loop district, reserved for the expected throng. From small hamlets to the largest cities in the United States came women to participate in what is expected to be one of the most momentous gatherings of feminine folk ever held in America. For ten days the convention is to be in session, seven of the days to be devoted to consideration of pressing questions of the day. With Mrs. Percy V. Penpacker, of Austin, Texas, president of the Federation, on hand early to review the general arrangements with Mrs. George Bass, chairman of the local biennial board, the last detail was complete for conducting the sessions even to the establishment of an emergency hospital corps of women physicians at the Auditorium Theatre, where the convention is to be held.

TO BETTER STATUS

The purpose of the Federation's assembly is to bring to a focus the divergent and leading views on all questions affecting woman's sphere, to review the activities of the women's clubs during the preceding two years, and to map out a program for militant action to better the status of womanhood. While slavery, minimum wages for women, dress-reform, scientific home cooking, sanitation in the home, vocational training and protection of the immigrant women from exploitation are a few of the subjects to be threshed out by the convention. Public health, art, music, literary extension work, and conservation are among the other topics to be brought to the delegates' attention. Authorities of national prominence will address the assembly. A reception in honor of Mrs. Penpacker, other retiring officers of the Federation, and the visiting members to be held at the Institute, Thursday evening, June 11, to be the big social event of the convention. June 14, "Sacred Sunday" memorial services in honor of Mrs. Sarah Platt Docket, of Denver, and Mrs. Frances S. Potter, of Chicago, will be held in the Auditorium. Both women had long been active in the affairs of the Federation. Election of officers is scheduled for Tuesday, June 16, with installation ceremonies the following day, when the real work of the assembly will have been finished. The last two days, June 18 and 19, will be given over to minor social affairs, sightseeing, and trips to Lake Michigan.

MINE CASUALTIES DURING APRIL 346

Statistics Announced Show a Large Increase Over Deaths of April, 1913.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—Men killed in and about coal mines in the United States during April numbered 346 as compared with 285 in April, 1913, according to Bureau of Mine statistics announced today. The large increase this April was due to an explosion at Zwick, West Va., which resulted in the death of 180 men.

For the four months ending with April this year's total was 917 men killed, compared with 918 killed last year during the first four months. The principal increases were: Explosions of gas and coal dust, 91; falling down shafts or slopes, 11. The principal decreases were: Falls off roof and coal, 173; mine cars and locomotives, 27.

During 1913 there were 2785 men killed in and about mines in the country. This was at the rate of 3.82 per one thousand men employed and 4.88 per one million short tons of coal mined, or a production of 204,688 short tons of coal for every life lost.

JUSTICE BARNARD RETIRES
WASHINGTON, June 8.—Upon reaching 70 years of age today, Justice Job Barnard, for fifteen years a member of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, retired. Bench and bar united in a public demonstration. Justice Barnard was appointed by President McKinley. He is a civil war veteran, having enlisted in Indiana. His retirement leaves only one civil war veteran among local judiciary—Justice Holmes of the United States Supreme Court.

Sixty-Six Per Cent.

According to the last report of the Bureau of Labor Statistics the retail prices of the "principal articles of food" in forty industrial cities advanced sixty-six per cent. in fourteen years. The price of

Shredded Wheat

in all that time has remained the same, and it is just as satisfying, strengthening and sustaining as it was fourteen years ago—a complete, perfect food, supplying more real, body-building nutriment than meat or eggs, costing much less and much more easily digested. Your grocer sells it.

Always heat the Biscuit in oven to restore crispness. Two Shredded Wheat Biscuits with hot milk or cream will supply all the energy needed for a half day's work. Deliciously nourishing when eaten in combination with baked apples, stewed prunes, sliced bananas or canned or preserved fruits. Try toasted Triscuit, the Shredded Wheat wafer, for luncheon with butter, cheese or marmalade.

CADDIES ON STRIKE MAUL CLUB MEMBERS

BROOKLYN, N. Y., June 8.—One hundred caddies at the Stuyvesant Country Club struck for higher pay yesterday.

Resisting attempts of members to elect them from the club grounds for interfering with the work of the new boys who were called, the caddies welded golf clubs freely, several members of the club sustaining cuts and bruises in the encounter.

Deputies who had been summoned to assist the club arrived after the strikers had disappeared.

FIVE UNIONS MEETING

WASHINGTON, June 8.—American Federation of Labor officials today called the attention of union labor throughout the country to the fact that five unions are holding annual conventions today. They are the International Stereotypers and Electrotypers of North America, at Newark, N. J.; International Brotherhood of Bookbinders, Denver; International Brotherhood of Boilermakers, Iron Shipbuilders, and Helpers of America, San Francisco; Tile Layers and Helpers International Union, and Commercial Telegraphers Union at Detroit.

Why California people should do all their buying from California manufacturers and jobbers, everything else being equal.

The advantages of buying our goods of California manufacturers and jobbers are very great. By purchasing articles made by home manufacturers the demand of California made goods becomes greater. In order to produce a larger quantity of goods more factories are built and more men employed. Instead of joining the army of the unemployed, men will go to work. This change will make our state more noted and very prosperous. It is very necessary to buy of California manufacturers and jobbers if we want to have a wealthy state.

Among the many articles in our home that are purchased of California manufacturers and jobbers are: Carnation granulated wheat, Sperry flour, Hill's spices, Yosemite salad oil, California Cracker Company's soda crackers, Diamond matches, M. J. B. coffee, Phoenix rolled oats and White Bear borax soap. All our furniture and our piano are purchased of California manufacturers.

If California people want their state to be one of the wealthiest in the union, if they want to have a state of contented people, then they should do all their buying of California manufacturers and jobbers.

Resinol will heal your skin

No matter how long you have been tortured and disfigured by itching, burning, raw or scaly skin humors, just put a little of that soothing, antiseptic Resinol Ointment on the sores and the suffering stops right there! Healing begins that very minute, and your skin gets well so quickly you feel ashamed of the money you throw away on useless, tedious treatments.

Resinol contains nothing of a harsh or injurious nature and can be used with confidence on the tenderest or most irritated surface. Practically every drugist sells Resinol Ointment (5c. and 15c.) and Resinol Soap (25c.). For trial free, write to Dept. 13-R, Resinol, Baltimore, Md. Beware of "substitutes."

BRYAN NEBRASKAN WILL RUN FOR GOVERNORSHIP

OMAHA, Neb., June 8.—Richard J. Metcalfe, vice-chairman of the committee to arrange the formal opening of the Panama Canal, has decided to accept the petition filed in his behalf for Democratic nomination for governor of the state of Nebraska.

In a statement given out yesterday Mr. Metcalfe declared he would support the administration of Woodrow Wilson.

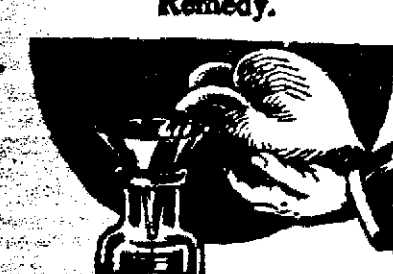

Ex-Governor Shallenberger, it was also learned, will file for the Democratic nomination for Congress in the Fifth district.
